

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

(The Herald.)
Thos. W. Godfrey, of Beagle, was in town last Friday on land business.
Stuart Porter, of Table Rock, left Monday evening for a few days visit with his parents at Yoncalla.

Mrs. Chas. Veghte and Willard Veghte, of Ashland, were over Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. J. M. Gibson.

Mrs. J. F. Dixon, of Roseburg, is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Nichols, and expects to remain until October 1.

R. H. Campbell and Dr. Davis returned last Thursday from their camping trip on Evans creek where they had fair luck in hunting, but found the fish crop light. Two fat bucks fell before their trusty rifles and campment was plentiful.

G. W. Sage has purchased an acre tract in the Constant addition from Mrs. W. C. Evans and will build on the property at once. Mr. Sage and family recently arrived here from Butte, Montana, and are highly pleased with the country.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shields returned last Thursday from Seattle where they spent a few weeks visiting friends and enjoying the big fair. They were accompanied on their return by Mrs. Shield's mother, Mrs. Eddington, who will spend the winter with them.

George Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey and J. H. Gay returned Wednesday from an enjoyable trip to Crater Lake. They also visited Huckleberry mountain, expecting to supply themselves with a winter store of the luscious fruit, but found the crop practically a failure this year.

Tom Altimus, a young man living west of town, was the victim of a serious accident Monday morning, and which, had it not been for timely medical assistance, might have resulted fatally. While cutting wood he in some manner severely cut his left wrist, severing the radial artery and vein. He was immediately brought to town, and Drs. Anderson and Pollnitz dressed the wound. Unless complications set in no serious results are now expected.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hull, of Logan, Iowa, are the guests this week of W. H. Norecross and family, Mr. Hull being Mrs. Norecross' brother. Mr. and Mrs. Hull are touring the coast and visiting the Seattle fair and stopped here to enjoy a visit with their relatives and to see the richest and best valley on earth. Mr. and Mrs. Norecross, accompanied by their guests, left Tuesday morning for Crater Lake in their automobile.

There is no place like home, but the Louvre cafe cooking is so near the kind mother used to do that you'll forget your troubles, especially if you are eating some of their famous hot waffles and maple syrup for breakfast.

CARRIE WEBSTER

A dainty dancer with "The Girl From Rector's"

The three Pendleton sisters, dancers in "The Girl From Rector's" who created a sensation with Elsie Janis in "The Vanderbilt Cup" last year, never travel in each other's company; they never sleep together; never dine at the same table and never dine in the same coach. When they go to the theater each day they take three different routes and when they return at night each selects a thoroughfare for herself.
The sisters have been doing their well-known dance together for five years and during all that time they declare they have never spent more than two hours in each other's company on a single occasion.
It is not superstition that keeps the young women apart, but simply fear that an accident might happen some day. They have become famous in their act and have agreed among themselves that it would be unfortunate for them to miss a performance. So under their procedure even if one, or two of the sisters, for that matter, should meet with some accident, there will still be a mem-

SALEM BEER

SALEM is the most popular beer in Northern California and Southern Oregon. It is acknowledged to be the equal of the very best eastern product. All beers are good, but some beers are liked better than others. The proof for this assertion lies in drinking Salem beer. If you wish to be convinced, ask for Salem beer and drink it.
