

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

(The Herald.)

Jacob Stone, a former well known resident of this city, now of Yoncalla, is here this week visiting friends and looking after his property interests. He reports all the former Central Pointers now living near Yoncalla as prosperous and happy.

Miss Wright, who has been engaged as a teacher in the Central Point school, arrived from Portland Tuesday.

Miss Bills of Fort Jones, Cal., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Landis and John Kelsey of Gold Hill were in town Sunday, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. Davis.

Glenn Owens returned Tuesday from a three weeks' vacation in the vicinity of Dead Indian springs. He says that bear and deer will hereafter be very scarce in that locality.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Amy, who have been on a trip to Seattle and Alaska since selling their home here, have returned to the valley and will reside in Medford the coming winter.

John Ross and George Ford are back from a hunting trip on Elk creek. Two deer was the extent of their bag on account of the hot, dry weather which prevailed during their trip. A good time, however.

Mr. Monismith, wife and son of Fairfield, Neb., were here for a few days last week, the guests of A. Balis and family, former Nebraska neighbors. They were looking over the valley with a view to becoming permanent residents and were well pleased. They went from here to Seattle to visit the fair on their homeward trip.

Work was started Monday morning at moving the old postoffice building to the rear of the lot to make room for the new brick structure which is to take its place. The new building will be 27½x50 feet and will be designed especially for postoffice purposes. Elmer Childers has the contract for construction.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jeffers and Rev. and Mrs. K. H. Sickafosse returned Tuesday from a pleasant outing at the Jeffers ranch near Butte Falls during which they made various excursions in the mountains in quest of bear, deer, trout and huckleberries. They report having had a most enjoyable trip.

A. L. Aikins of this place and Frank Dickey of Ashland returned Thursday evening from a hunting trip on Elk creek, where they each succeeded in landing a fat buck and enjoyed the delights of camp life for eight or ten days. Mr. Aikins says the trout fishing on upper Elk creek is poor because of a dam which the hatchery people have built across the mouth of the creek, which prevents any fish from going up the creek.

J. O. Isaacson and party returned from their camping trip last Friday evening and report having had a most enjoyable time. They camped on the south fork of Rogue river, about 16 miles northeast from Butte Falls and had a delightful camping place. The fishing was good and while in camp the party caught all they wanted. It is Mr. Isaacson's belief, however, that the deer were not fat and for that reason, if for no other, they refrained from killing any of the beautiful creatures. Mr. Isaacson was greatly benefited by the trip and took on many pounds of flesh and tan while away.

Rev. and Mrs. B. A. Bristol have gone to Eugene for a couple of weeks to visit with friends, and will attend the annual conference of the M. E. church, which meets this year at Cottage Grove. It is probable that Mr. Bristol will receive assignment to another field of labor at the conference, in which case they will not return to Central Point. Mr. and Mrs. Bristol have many friends in this city, not only among the membership of the M. E. church, of which he has been pastor for two years, but also among the people generally.
