

ST MARY'S WILL OPEN ON MONDAY

Classes at St. Mary's Academy Re-open Next Monday, September Sixth.

St. Mary's academy stands for something more than a school. It is a home, in which the development of the mind, the cultivation of the heart and the growth of the soul are inseparably united. This fact being established and accepted, is it strange that so many thinking parents choose a convent school for their daughters? The keynote to training in a convent school such as St. Mary's is struck by Webster in these words: "If we work upon marble it will perish; if we work upon brass time will efface; if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon immortal minds, if we imbue them with principles, with the just fear of God and love of our fellow men, we engrave on those tablets something which will brighten to all eternity."

Parents understanding that a healthy self control is necessary to the formation of character, realize the worth of order, punctuality, economy and self restraint enforced by convent discipline.

Social activities are thoroughly encouraged at St. Mary's, but made to follow, not to supplant application to study.

The curriculum of St. Mary's is deep and broad and high. Exceptional advantages are offered those who wish to specialize in music, drawing, painting, needlework, etc.

COST OF LIVING CHEAPENED.

Over One-Half Million People Benefited in Oregon Alone.

When you can save about 30 per cent on the cost of an article and at the same time get the highest standard of quality at a time when most manufacturers are talking of raising prices is something that consumers should not forget. The price made on this particular article is not a price forced by competition, nor is it a price made in a spirit of philanthropy. It is made strictly as a business proposition; the idea being that a large business with small profits is better than a small business with large profits.

Made of the finest grade of cream of tartar, it is put up in tins of all sizes, the most economical sizes perhaps are the 3-pound cans selling for $1.00 and the 5-pound cans selling for $1.65.

It is now generally conceded by all that there is nothing on the market showing more merit for quality and price than the article here referred to—Cleveland Superior Baking Powder.

Good for Biliousness.

"I took two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets last night, and I feel fifty per cent better than I have for weeks," says J. J. Firestone of Allegan, Mich. "They are certainly a fine article for biliousness." For sale by Leon B. Haskins' Pharmacy.

The Nash Grill is open day and night—the finest service between Portland and San Francisco.

"YO HO, AND A BOTTLE OF RUM," SANG THE COCKATOO

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 4.—The small blue cockatoo which Dr. William F. Baker has been teaching to speak English, flew into the streets and capped the climax by swearing in front of Holy Trinity church. Dr. Baker informed the police that his highly educated bird was at large. He was surprised today when a red-faced policeman rang his doorbell.

"Does that bird of yours swear?" the bluecoat blurted out. The doctor denied it.

"Well, I've found one in Rittenhouse square and the way it is carrying on is a disgrace," continued the indignant policeman. "It's a wonder people wouldn't take care what they say in front of birds and children, anyway. I want you to come and tell it to stop."

"But, my good man," said the doctor hopelessly.

"Yes, I am a good man," broke in the cop, "and I ain't used to such language. It is a disgrace. All the nurses have had to take the children out of the park. I've tried to shoo the bird away, but it just stays up there and swears."

The doctor, who is a professor of neurology at Hahnemann college, has been experimenting scientifically to teach the bird to speak. When the doctor went to investigate the bird greeted him with "Fifteen men on a dead man's chest. Yo ho, and a bottle of rum!"

The bird is still at large.

Why Druggists Recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. Frank C. Hanrahan, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: "For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purposes that pay me a larger profit, but this remedy is so sure to effect a cure, and my customer so certain to appreciate my recommending it to him, that I give it the preference." For sale by Leon B. Haskins' Pharmacy.
