HOLOHAN CHIEF OF BRAVES FOR ENSUING YEAR

Pacific Indians Hold Annual Meeting and Elect New Officers for Ensuing Year.

At the annual meeting of the Pacific Indians held Monday evening Peter J. Holohan of Twin Falls, Idaho, was elected chief for the coming year. All the members of the tribe visiting Medford were present, and enthusiastic speeches made by eastern Indians as well as by braves of the local tribe.

The meeting was held in the spacious rooms of the Medford Commercial club. Tyee Sachem Abraham presided. The minutes of the first organization at Medford one year ago, together with financial report to date, were read by Herald-Custodian and approved. A vote of thanks was also taken and ordered to be recorded, as extended to the herald-custodian for his efforts in getting the new order squared away for its useful and active career.

It was moved to defer the election of new members to the adjourned meeting later in the week, and to limit the number of new members received at this time to 12.

Election of officers for the coming year resulted in the unanimous choice of the following:

Tyee sachem, Peter J. Holohan of Twin Falls, Idaho; makst tyee sachem, J. E. Enyart, Medford, Or.; klone tyee sachem, George P. Wells, Nelson, B. C.; herald-custodian, Frank C. Riehl, Tacoma; tillicum wawa, T. B. Ware, Spokane; J. T. Hillis, Vancouver, B. C.; C. A. Haight, San Francisco; J. E. Cullison, Portland.

A vote of welcome and the glad hand of fellowship was extended to visiting eastern Indians, High Chief Tom A. Marshall and Chiefs, Heap-Talk Fred Gilbert, Slob-Chris Gottlieb and Make-em-Fly Charlie North, and they were made honorary members of the tribe and invited to participate in the present meeting of the western tribe.

This tender was accepted in a most graceful and heart-warming speech by High-Chief Marshall, such as he alone knows how to deliver. In this talk he gave much assistance and advice in citing the experience of the eastern and oriental Indians, and was in turn warmly thanked and congratulated.

A fraternity resolution looking to the closer knitting of the ties of mutual good fellowship among members was adopted and given to be memorized as one of the unwritten laws of the order.

Vice-Sachem Enyart then addressed the meeting, citing the program of entertainment provided for the week by the good people of Medford, which was greeted with most enthusiastic applause.

Meeting adjourned to Thursday afternoon.

Rudie Sholtz, the most enthusiastic ball fan and star player of southern Oregon, has left for Mt. Angel to enter school there.

IN PRACTICE POSTEN BROKE 99 OUT OF 100

Several High Scores Resulted in the Practice Shoot Monday Afternoon on Local Grounds.

In order to get acquainted with the local grounds, the Pacific Indians held a practice shoot on Monday afternoon, and during several hours the guns played fast and furiously. Several splendid scores were made, among which Posten takes high honors by breaking 99 out of a possible 100, Ellis 98, Cullison 98, Abraham 96 and Heard 86.

Thirty-two guns were out for 100 shots each, and everything went off in first-class shape. BELIEVES MEDFORD WILL BE LARGE CITY

California Capitalist Has Praise for Richness of Country Tributary to Medford.

"Medford is a wonderfully rich horticultural country and it is destined to become a large town in my opinion," states W. J. Hotchkiss, of San Francisco, manager of the Hobbs-Wall company of Crescent City, and controlling owner of the Central California canneries, the largest independent canning concern on the coast, operating five canneries with a yearly output of 550,000 cases, who has been spending a week here.

"In addition to horticultural, mineral and timber resources, the climate is a great asset. Many people will, as the country becomes known come here to reside just for the climate, which far surpasses that of southern California. A man has but one life to live, and he might as well live it where he can secure some enjoyment.

"Medford will become quite a railroad point and branch roads will tap the country from several directions, centering business here.

"I think local growers will continue to receive fancy prices for pears, which will be your great crop, not because of quality, as much as the fact that your fruit arrives in markets at the right time, when the products of other districts have been marketed and there is a shortage. Until some other district is found whose fruit ripens with yours, Rogue river pears will command top notch figures.

"When conditions are right; that is, when you have so many pears

"BULLY FOR PEARY" EXCLAIMS DR. COOK WHEN INFORMED OF HIS COLLEAGUE'S SUCCESS

Pays His Old Commander Tribute
but is Glad That He Reached Pole
First--Soon off for New York

(By Charles P. Stewart. Copyright, 1909, by the United Press Association.)

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 7.—"Bully for Peary."

This was the first exclamation of Dr. Frederick A. Cook when I handed him a dispatch from Commander Peary to the United Press announcing his successful quest of the north pole. Continuing, Dr. Cook said:

"There cannot be any doubt in the minds of anyone who knows Commander Peary but that the message came from him. Its wording makes me sure that he reached the pole. It sounds so like Peary. I am mighty glad Peary has been successful, for he is one of the bravest, most persevering men who ever went north. He deserves all the honor that will come to him, and in addition I am certain that his reports will corroborate the data I have collected. Of course it would be hypocritical of me to attempt to conceal the fact that I am delighted to have been able to plant the American flag at the pole a year before Peary reached that spot."

Despite his generous tribute, it is obvious that Peary's messages have nettled Cook. Stating that owing to a desire to rejoin his wife and children, he may sail for New York by way of Antwerp within a week, it is generally believed that Dr. Cook deems it advisable to retain the strategic advantage he has already gained to get back to New York ahead of Peary.

Another Cable From Peary.
BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Secretary Bridgman of the Peary Arctic club has received the following message:

"Kindly rush following: Wire all principal home and foreign geographical societies, all nations, including Japan and Brazil, that the north pole was reached April 6, 1909, by Peary's Arctic Club expedition under the command of Peary."

The message was forwarded to the officials at Washington.

SCHOOLS OPEN; MANY PUPILS

Schools Crowded With Pupils—Increase Is Shown Over Last Year.

The local schools opened Monday with the largest attendance of pupils in the history of Medford for opening day. Nearly 800 pupils were enrolled and it is expected that fully 100 more will enter today, as the session Monday was but a short one.

The average daily attendance for the Medford schools last year for the first month was 742.4. This number increased later as is generally the case.

In the West school Monday there were as many pupils in evidence as when the high school was formerly located there.

The high school enrolled 125 pupils Monday, which number is expected to increase during the week. The North school contains about as many pupils as last year.

The average attendance this year is expected to run over 1000 daily.

ATTENTION, EASTERN STARS.

The first regular meeting of Reames chapter, No. 66, after the summer vacation, will be held Wednesday evening, September 8, at 8 o'clock. Members please come.

LILLIAN B. WOODFORD, Secretary.

that the railroads cannot handle them, you will need a cannery, and not before. As long as you can sell pears boxed at fancy figures, there is no call for a cannery. A cannery's success depends upon the quality of its output, and only good fruit can be used. When justified, I will build a cannery here, but it will not be for years."

MOORS WHIPPED BY SPANIARDS

Expected to Surprise Spanish Troops,
But Failed in So Doing.

MELILLA, Sept. 7.—Encouraged by recent victories over the Spaniards, 1500 Moors today attacked the army of General Agueleras as it was marching. They were repulsed with heavy losses. They expected to surprise the Spaniards, but were met with a heavy fire. Hundreds of Moors fell and the others were forced to retreat.

LADIES AFTER LAIRD OF SKIBO

ting Busy on Work of Securing Library Building.

The ladies of the Greater Medford club are busy at present endeavoring to secure a Carnegie library for this city. The request has been forwarded, together with affidavits regarding the library tax voted by Medford for its maintenance.

The appeal was assisted by William McMurray of the Southern Pacific company, who wrote Mr. Carnegie regarding this city.

Tomorrow is tag day and it behooves all Medford residents to have with them the change necessary to purchase tags. The money is to be used for improving the city park.
