

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Phone 3303 for tea or coffee. *
E. J. Odell of Annandale, Minn., has returned home after looking over this valley and investig in orchard land here. He declares the country "out of sight."
Spices and extracts at 36 So. G street.

The Rev. Robert Ennis, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Jacksonville, officiated at the funeral of Squire Sturgis and returned home Thursday.

Best meal for the least money at the Spot cafe.

J. M. Pool of Bristol, Conn., was in Medford on a business trip this week.

Special music every evening during dinner at the Nash Grill.

Mrs. J. A. Lyon of this city is visiting in Portland with her daughter, Mrs. J. Wetzel.

For home grown nursery stock and a square deal, see Cook. Office 25 West Main street, Medford. 50*

Much is expected from the high school football team this year, as there is much material to pick from and many of the boys are experienced hands at the game. One of the players states that the first team will average 140 pounds and the second close to 130.

You'll like boxball. Try it.

C. H. Parker has returned from Jacksonville, where he was a witness in the case of H. F. Whetstone vs. R. R. V. Railway company.

It wouldn't be surprising to see an epidemic of street improvement break out on the East Side at any time. There are a few fellows over there that can see that it will double and triple the value of their property.

Weldon Sage, who has been working on the farmers' ditch up above the Rogue, was in town this week.

Orders for sweet cream or buttermilk promptly filled. Phone the creamery.

R. H. Loomis, representing the New York fruit firm, E. B. Loomis & Co., has been visiting Captain Voorhees and J. A. Perry, both of which are old friends. Mr. Loomis has been looking over the fruit situation in this valley for his company, but has made no definite arrangements for shipments, although he will probably do so.

You'll meet your friend at the box ball alley.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Alverson of Grants Pass attended the G. A. R. encampment at Jacksonville this week.

It may be your turn next—don't overlook your insurance. Benson Investment Co. 155

A. B. Cornell of this city left on Thursday evening for a tour of the northern part of the valley.

Holmes devotes his whole time to insurance and will give you good service in good companies. 155

E. A. Waite, a Grants Pass merchant, has been attending the G. A. R. encampment at Jacksonville.

Hear Professor Romanoff in violin solos every evening the Nash Grill.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hotchkiss of Grangeville, Idaho, who have been staying in Medford the last few weeks looking over the valley, left for their home town to settle up their interests before coming here to live.

If the East Side will warke up now Oakdale avenue and West Eighth street won't have it all their own way, as the best residence districts of the city.

C. L. Reames and E. E. Kelly were attending court Wednesday.

An inspection of our nursery will convince the most skeptical. Call or mail your list of wants and let us save you $$$$$$. R. R. V. Nurseries. Office, 25 W. Main st. 50*

Mrs. W. C. Deneff has returned from a visit with relatives at Klamath Falls.

Southern Oregon Tea and Coffee Co., 36 So. G street.

Miss Mary Turner of Medford was the guest of Mrs. Frank Kiser Wednesday.

Why rush home? Try the Spot Cafe's 25c dinner.

Mrs. J. A. Lyons left for Portland on Thursday.

The Nash Grill makes a speciality of special dinners, banquets etc. Music every evening.

Don't forget Montgomery's opening tomorrow.

J. G. Gore will leave Friday evening for a trip east.

R. D. Cole of Grants Pass was a recent visitor in Medford.

Better take out that fire insurance policy while you think of it. Do it now. Benson Investment Co. 155

A. B. Cornell is visiting in Grants Pass.

Wouldn't it be well to see Holmes, the insurance man, about your insurance. 155

E. A. Washburne leaves Friday evening for a visit in Seattle and Portland.

Larrupin good truck, Bill—those hot waffles at the Louvre.

Mrs. M. Rose of Phoenix was a recent Medford visitor.

See Prof. Anton Romanoff, formerly court violinist of Austrian emperor, for lessons on violin, guitar and mandolin. Leave orders at Nash hotel.

Mrs. Nellie Newbury has returned from an extended visit in Portland.

Don't forget Montgomery's opening tomorrow.

Mrs. C. W. Northrup has returned from a visit in Shasta Springs.

Imperial addition—Stop right now and look up the Imperial addition advertisement in this issue.

F. E. Redden has arrived for a visit with his parents in this city.

The Louvre cafe for the best.

W. B. Nuthal of San Francisco stopped off at Medford on his return trip from the Seattle fair, because, to use his own words, he "had heard it was quite a place." The "it" referring, of course, to our metropolis.

Teas and coffees at 36 So. G st. *

A. J. Porter of Mexico City, Mex., was in Medford on business Friday.

Don't forget Montgomery's opening tomorrow.

A party consisting of L. D. Canfield, S. M. Lee and L. M. Lyon have gone on a hunting trip into the Siskiyou for a few weeks.

H. G. Gerry of Portland is in the city.

Are you from Missouri? If so, Cook, the nurseryman, would like an opportunity to show you. 50*

Groyce Eary of Portland is a recent arrival in Medford.

Nash Grill—open all the time. Finest service between Portland and San Francisco.

Among Medford visitors are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCormodale of Portland.

Holmes, the insurance man, would like to talk insurance with you. 155

J. R. Stein of Portland is registered at the Nash.

R. A. Leiter of Portland is a guest of the Nash hotel.

George Clark of Portland is now in the city.

W. C. Camp of Louisville is in the city.

T. R. Sheridan of Roseburg is a Medford visitor.

K. B. Hare of Chicago is among the eastern visitors to the valley.

W. J. Dermody of Portland is registered at the Nash.

S. S. Warren of Portland is visiting in Medford for a few days.

W. B. Feckheimer of Portland spent Friday in Medford.

Russell Smith of Portland is registered at the Nash.

Yep, feel fine bad dinner at the Louvre.

E. T. Fete of Portland spent the latter part of the week in the city.

D. N. Smith of Portland arrived in Medford Saturday and will stay a few days.

Among Portland visitors in Medford is F. T. Raley.

A game everybody can play—boxball.

L. E. Lane and wife of Huntington, Ark., are guests of the Nash.

A. H. Raley and William A. Bacon of Salem are visiting Medford for a few days.

Don't forget Montgomery's opening tomorrow.

Reginald Colby of Seattle is visiting the city.

H. A. Dorman and wife of Portland are in the city.

Guy Francis of San Francisco is a recent arrival in Medford.

C. D. Gabrielson of Salem is in the city.

J. W. Howard of Cleveland, O., is an eastern caller in Medford.

Ernest Webb of Portland paid Medford another visit on Friday.

Ella Gannaw, public stenographer, room 4, Palm building.

Don't forget the dance at The Wigwam tonight after the band concert.

E. T. Hibbard of Portland is in the city.

E. H. Daring of Portland is visiting in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ganaway of New London, Ia., are recent Medford arrivals.

A. C. Abbott of Portland is a business caller in Medford.

NASH GRILL

Table d'Hote Dinner
Sunday, September 19.

Canape a la Russe

Plume Celery Olives Salted Nuts

Consomme en Tasse

English Sole, Marinere
Pommes Richelieu

Stuffed Tomatoes en Mayonnaise

Breast of Chicken in Cases Crisfield

Nash Special Punch

Stuffed Young Turkey
French Peas in Cream
Creamed Potatoes

Tutti Frutti Ice Cream
Assorted Fancy Cake

Neufchatel Cheese
Bent's Water Crackers

Cafe Noir

Remember the dance at The Wigwam tonight. 155

W. E. Hammel of Eagle Point has come down from the present terminus of the U. & E. to tell us all about it.

A. N. Holman of Portland is a business visitor in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Early of Louisville, Ky., are recent Medford arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Patterson of San Marcon, Cal., are viewing the city and valley.

L. A. Murray of Portland is a business caller in Medford.

L. Hirsch of New York visited the city on Friday.

John M. Lees and C. A. Grenin of Portland are recent Medford arrivals.

R. J. Wallenberg of Seattle is down for a few days.

K. B. Hare of Chicago is registered at the Moore.

W. W. Rogers of Portland is a Medford visitor.

F. W. Cooper of Detroit, Mich., is here on business matters.

George A. Phippen of Eugene is in Medford for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brayton of Hope, R. I., are investigating the city and valley.

W. H. H. Miller of Portland is in Medford for a few days.

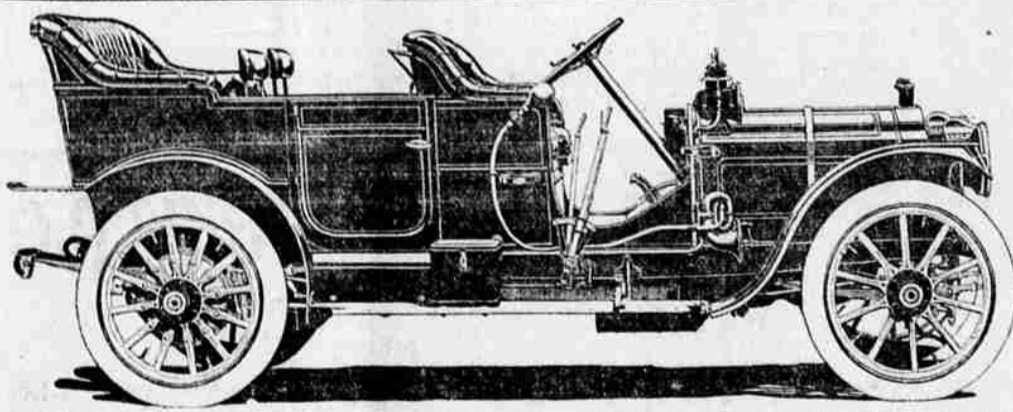

HEADQUARTERS FOR
Harness Saddles
Whips Robes
Tents Blankets
Wagon Sheets
Axle Grease and
Gall Cure

ALL KINDS OF CUSTOM WORK
J. C. Smith
314 E. Main

The 1910

Packard 30 Motor Car

Will Be Shown

Friday, Sept. 16

At The

Nash Hotel

D. M. SMITH, Representative

Frank C. Riggs

PACKARD MOTOR CARS

Seventh and Oak Streets.

Portland, Oregon