

BIG SALE OF BEEF MADE TO MITCHELL

Checks for Approximately $30,000 Paid to Stockmen of County.

Beef cattle for which he drew checks aggregating approximately $30,000 were delivered to J. C. Mitchell at Ashland Monday by up-valley and Dead Indian range stockmen. Thirty carloads were loaded at the yards in Ashland that day and shipped out for the south and about 15 carloads are yet to go, cars not being available for the entire delivery of about 900 head.

The prices paid ranged from $3.75 per hundred dweight gross for prime steers, down to $2.50 per hundred for lowest grade stuff, feeding steers going at $3.25 and dry cows at $3.

THREE AVIATORS TO TRY FOR THE $10,000 PURSE

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Entries having closed yesterday, it was announced today that three aviators will participate in the $10,000 airship speed race from New York to Albany during the Hudson-Fulton celebration. Competitors will be Captain Thomas Baldwin, with a dirigible balloon; John Roeder, of White Plains, N. Y., with a combination aeroplane and dirigible balloon, and George L. Tomlinson of Syracuse, N. Y., who will be accompanied by Horace R. Wild of Chicago, in a dirigible.

AGED CURRY COUNTY MAN WEDS YOUNG GIRL

GOLD BEACH, Or., Sept. 17.—When "Uncle Jimmy" Fry, aged 78, took to wife 16-year-old Annie Thomas, up Rogue river a few days ago, he secured not only his fourth mate, but his first white one. "Uncle Jimmie" has been a man of great activity on Rogue river since earliest days, and his descendants are settled all along that stream for many miles. His first three wives were squaws. A justice of the peace living near Agnes performed the ceremony. The young woman came from the Illabe region.

OREGON PRUNES SENT TO CHICAGO MARKET

EUGENE, Or., Sept. 17.—The Allen cannery here is packing and shipping Oregon prunes to Chicago, finding it a very profitable business. Green prunes are packed in baskets, four of the latter to a crate, labeled "Oregon-Washington-Idaho prunes," the company having establishments in the three states. Last week six carloads of prunes were shipped from here, and thus far this week the cannery has averaged one car a day.

CHANGES MADE IN LOCAL LAUNDRY CIRCLES

L. T. Boyce and B. H. Kirby, promoters of the Medford steam laundry, have disposed of their interest in that concern and purchased the Southern Oregon laundry at Ashland. Emil Cordes has also disposed of his interest in the proposed Medford institution and has taken an active interest in the Medford Domestic laundry. Mr. Cordes, who is an experienced laundry man, is considered an acquisition to this already first-class firm.

Hugo Waldick of San Francisco is looking after business matters in Medford.

EXTENSIONS TO STREET RAILWAYS OF EUGENE

EUGENE, Or., Sept. 17.—A. Welch, manager of the Northwestern Corporation, the new company that has taken over the properties of the Willamette Valley company, announces that extensions to the local street railway system will be made in the near future. Just now the company is building a line out Moss avenue to the entrance of Hendricks' Park and to connect with the Masonic cemetery line. This new extension is a mile or more long. It will be completed by October 1st.
