ST. JOHNS, Sept. 18.—Commander Peary is quoted here today as denying that he intends to search for the south pole and as declaring that he will never make another expedition into Arctic or Antarctic territory.

FIRST WESTERN RATE HEARING, SALT LAKE

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Members of the interstate commerce commission are now preparing for their tour through the west, which will begin next week. During their westward journey the commission will hear cases regarding rates, in all the principal cities of the west, and the results of their decisions will be important and far reaching.

The first complaint that will be heard by the commission will be at Salt Lake city. The Salt Lake traffic bureau and the Commercial club claim the rates into Utah are discriminatory and that they are so adjusted as to favor the coast cities.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gore of this city have left for a visit in Seattle. They were accompanied by Miss Beulah Warner, who has secured a splendid position in the Spokane high school.

$30,000 NOT ENOUGH FOR KATE GOULD

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Thirty-six thousand dollars a year is not enough for Katherine Clemmons Gould, if the suggestion of one of her attorneys, to the effect that considerable more alimony will be asked, no matter what further legal action is taken by her husband, can be accepted.

Yesterday Justice Dowling passed upon the findings submitted to him by Howard Gould's lawyers in his wife's suit for separation. More than 200 findings were submitted and most of them were rejected.

Mrs. Gould was allowed alimony of $3000 a month, following her successful suit for separate maintenance from her husband in June.

LA GRANDE, Or., Sept. 18.—Owners of automobiles in Union county will call a meeting in a short time for the purpose of organizing an automobile club. The purpose is to form a pool for the purchase of supplies. There is talk of arranging for races here the first two days of the Union county exposition, although nothing definite has been done.
