WELCOME TO THE ELKS.

All Medford rejoices at the installation of a lodge of Elks, not only glad to number among its lodges such a royal order of good fellows, but as also marking a step in the city's growth as a metropolis.

The Elks have been aptly described as "the best people on earth," and to have a strong local lodge to welcome strangers and entertain members adds greatly to the attractiveness of the city.

The installation of lodge 1168, B. P. O. E., marks the culmination of a vigorous campaign of some duration, conducted in the spirit that has made Medford famous. It was necessary to overcome strong opposition, to secure a census of the city, and to appeal to the national convention and secure special dispensations, and the local members are to be congratulated upon the success of their efforts.

The characteristics of the Elks have been described as follows: "A profound belief in God; a spirit of beneficence to the unfortunate; the cultivation of comradeship and hearty enjoyment of the good things of life; a cherishing of the virility of existence and a cultivation of manly sentiment."

Founded in 1867, with a membership of thirteen, the order now numbers over 300,000, made up of men in all walks of life, among them the brightest and most attractive of men. It is solely fraternal and wholly uncommercial and practices a broad charity among the unfortunate.

Hence Medford extends a royal welcome to the Elks and the many prominent members now visiting the city, and may the local lodge grow in membership and prosperity as remarkably as has the national membership.

PALMER PARTY RETURNS FROM CAMPING TRIP

Honore Palmer and Mrs. Palmer, of Chicago, H. Carroll Brown and Mrs. Brown of Baltimore, governess and children, W. A. Sumner and B. Conner of Medford returned Wednesday evening from a week's camping trip at Blue Canyon. Several deer were secured by the party, a bear shot at and another flushed, all the trout wanted were caught and a most enjoyable time was had by all.

Mr. Palmer, who has extensive property interests here, will remain with his guests for a week or ten days looking after his orchards and determining the future of "Modoc" orchard.

TODAY IS DAY OF DAYS FOR HOME BOYS

body to boost the granting of a dispensation for a lodge in Medford. The dispensation was granted.

The local boys then decided that September 15 was a good date for the institution of the lodge. But District Deputy Sevins was unable to come until October. So T. E. Daniels wired J. U. Lammis, grand exalted ruler of the Elks, who appointed A. Edgar Beard of Portland to visit Medford as a special deputy and institute this lodge. And today Mr. Beard is here to institute the new lodge. It is the close of a long, hard, uphill fight.

In the plans for today it was first decided to have a very quiet institution of the lodge, but the progressive element of the local boys won out and here the big time is.

More credit is due perhaps to T. E. Daniels than any other local Elk for the institution of the new lodge. He has been untiring in his efforts for the lodge and has devoted much of time and money to the organization. Others who have worked hard and are entitled to much credit are Clarence L. Reames, Carl Heilbronner, John S. Orth, W. H. Canon and W. S. Crowell and Dr. Goble.

The new lodge will start with some 40 charter members. In the list signed by those who wished to become charter members are a number who have failed to receive their demits from other lodges and for this reason will not be charter members. Fully 100 Elks live in and near Medford and will at once join the local lodge.

The lodge will be organized tonight. For 30 days they will be unable to handle candidates. On or about November 1 applications from mavericks will be received. And of these are a great number.

After seeing the opera "A Knight for a Day," finish up your evening's pleasure with a good dance at The Wigwam. 160

Welcome B. P. O. E.

So say all the people of Medford Also, welcome Sherman, Clay & Co.

AS THIS IS ONE OF THE LARGEST RELIABLE PIANO HOUSES ON THE PACIFIC COAST, THE PEOPLE OF MEDFORD ARE BEING MUCH PLEASED TO LEARN THAT THEY HAVE LEASED THE NEIDERMIER-PALM BUILDING FOR A TERM OF FIVE YEARS, WHERE THEY WILL ESTABLISH THE FINEST MUSIC STORE BETWEEN PORTLAND AND SAN FRANCISCO. WHEN SUCH A CAREFUL, CONSERVATIVE BUSINESS FIRM MAKES A MOVE OF THIS KIND IT MEANS MUCH FOR MEDFORD AND IS ONE MORE PROOF OF THE FUTURE GROWTH OF THIS CITY. THEIR LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE, MR. WALTERS, SAYS MEDFORD WILL REACH THE 20,000 MARK BEFORE MANY YEARS.
