CALIFORNIA COMICE ONLY FAIR RETURN

Rae & Hatfield, under date of September 24, issue the following New York deciduous market letter:

Unfavorable weather. Still raining. Light attendance.

The bad weather of the past three days has prevented the trade from doing much business, and stocks have accumulated. Market today was weak all through sale, prices ranging around those realized at the close of sale yesterday.

Malagas showed a little decay; averaged 88c.

Fall and winter pears in liberal receipt today. Five cars. Our half boxes of Comice from San Jose sold for $2.25.

Salways and George Altes sold around 60c to 65c. Plenty of nearby peaches still around the market.

Heavy offering looked for on Monday. Still raining this afternoon.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

(The Herald.)

J. J. Houck of Gold Hill was in Central Point the fore part of this week.

E. A. Bissell and family of Table Rock left Thursday for a visit at their old home at Cleveland, O.

Mrs. Ruby and son of Smith county, Kansas, visited her father, G. W. Jeffers, during the week.

Mrs. K. H. Siskafoose left Monday evening for a visit with friends in the Willamette valley.

H. T. Findlay, the well known orchardist, with interests at Table Rock and near Medford, was in town Monday morning.

Mrs. A. P. Gillet returned Friday from Canyonville, where she has been for the past month. She was accompanied home by her daughter, Mrs. Dubell.

D. H. Brown of Roseburg has leased the building formerly occupied by the Central Point meat market and has opened a fish market therein.

C. W. McDonald, formerly engaged in the shoe business in Medford, was here Tuesday looking over the future possibilities of Central Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold, relatives of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Norcross, are here from Iowa visiting and enjoying the scenic and other attractions of the valley.

J. E. Foster and family, former residents of this section, arrived from Philadelphia, Pa., last Saturday, where they have been residing for the past four years, and have resumed residence on their farm on Rogue river. Mr. Foster is a native Oregonian and a four years' residence in the east served to make him a greater admirer of the Rogue River valley than he had ever before been. He was amazed at the rapid growth of Central Point since he went away, as well as the entire valley.

Ray Ross mixed in a football game on the school grounds last Friday and came out with a broken arm. The fracture was reduced by Drs. Anderson and Polnitz, and "Toad" was able to enjoy the practice game Sunday afternoon as a spectator.

Too much booze injudiciously handled in a dry town was the cause of trouble Saturday evening, when two young men apparently looking for trouble created a disturbance at a quiet dance in a local hall. When the owner of the building requested them to leave the hall a mixup occurred, in which the aggressors were landed in the street and later were haled before the city recorder and fined. Prohibition of the local option variety does not always remove the evils aimed at when other towns within easy reach can supply the wherewithal to put men in a condition to raise Cain.

J. C. Isaacson, James Shields and B. F. Peart returned Sunday from a hunting trip on Elk creek. Mr. Isaacson reports that while their success was not alarming, he is convinced that the next trip will be all that could be desired, as they found out to a certainty where the deer will be when they take another trip up that way.

W. Beatty, who resides at the old O'Hara place near Tolo, will hold a public sale Saturday, October 9, when a large number of horses, farming implements, vehicles, household goods etc., will be sold. George L. Neale is the auctioneer and it is understood that everything is to be sold. For full particulars see bills, which will be posted in a day or two.

W. P. Towney, the expert gardener, has the world benter this season for big sunflowers. A specimen he furnished Medford's exhibit building Monday measured 22 inches in diameter and 66 inches around and he has another still growing in his garden which is several inches larger than he is saving to put on exhibition in Central Point as soon as it quits growing.

Mr. Twaney has demonstrated the benefit of plenty of water on garden land here, having his own well and pumping plant on his property on North Fifth street. The big sunflowers are only an earnest of what the berries and vegetables are.
