

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Nickell of Sterling spent Saturday with relatives in Medford and Jacksonville.

Mrs. Minnie J. Wood of Hartford, Conn., has opened a class for dancing, Angle opera house, for adults, Friday evening, 8:10 p. m. Children 2 to 4. 169

Mrs. Nellie Nerbury spent the day in Medford Saturday.

Special glove sale at Van Dyke's. New "Centemere" kid gloves for fall. 169

Mrs. Charles Dunford of Jacksonville was a Medford visitor Saturday.

See Prof. Anton Rozanoff, formerly court violinist of Austrian emperor, for lessons on violin, guitar and mandolin. Leave orders at Nash Grill.

David Cronmiller of Jacksonville, who left for San Francisco recently, has entered Heald's business college.

Best meal for the least money at the Spot cafe.

Miss Annie Broad of Williams Creek is spending a few days with friends living in Jacksonville.

Teas and coffees at 36 So. G st.

Horace Pelton of Klamath county was a caller at the county sea Saturday.

The Nash Grill makes a specialty of special dinners, banquets etc. Music every evening.

Fred Rapp of Talent was transacting business at the county seat Saturday.

New winter "Florsheim" shoes for men at Van Dyke's. 169

H. H. Helms of Talent was a business caller Saturday.

Hear Professor Romanoff in violin solos every evening the Nash Grill.

George Neuber and M. Welch left for Squaw Lake Saturday morning to be gone a number of weeks.

Orders for sweet cream or butter-milk promptly filled. Phone the creamery.

A number of Jacksonville people attended the "Giri Question" at Medford Friday night and were well pleased with the performance. Those who went over were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barnum, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dow, Miss Gladys Shaw, Miss Leona Ulrich, Charles Prim, Roy Ulrich and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Barnum.

Nash Grill—open all the time. Finest service between Portland and San Francisco.

William Matney and John Matney, William Cameron, A. Trockmorton and William Boshtwick, all of the Applegate country, were at the county seat Saturday.

The Louvre cafe for the best.

W. R. Coleman spent Saturday and Sunday in Phoenix.

Ella Gaunyaw, public stenographer, room 4, Palm building.

Miss Kate Reed arrived from San Francisco recently to visit her mother, Mrs. Carlos Reed.

See the new reds, tans and green shades in winter "Florsheim" shoes for men. Van Dyke's. 169

B. F. Moore of Mt. Carmel, Ill., is looking over the valley for a location.

CORN GROWN BETWEEN ROWS OF TREES IN LOCAL ORCHARDS

George C. Metcalf, assistant auditor for the Pacific Express company of St. Louis, was in the city on business the first of the week. Mr. Metcalf will purchase orland land here in the near future.

Special music every evening during dinner at the Nash Grill.

Mildred Snyder has been up from Glendale visiting her sister, Miss Lucretia, and returns home this week.

Phone 3303 for tea or coffee.

George Schiller of Sheridan, Wyo., is a Medford visitor.

Larrupin good truck, Bill—those hot waffles at the Louvre.

Miss Annie Milton of San Francisco is visiting friends in the valley.

Yep, feel fine had dinner at the Louvre.

Mrs. W. R. Coleman of Coleman Creek passed through here Saturday on her way to Phoenix to visit friends.

Southern Oregon Tea and Coffee Co., 36 So. G street.

Miss Mary Kittridge, Miss Ethel Poley and Helen Norling, teachers of local grades, were Ashland visitors recently.

Why rush home? Try the Spot Cafe's 25c dinner. You will find winter furs at Van Dyke's. 169

William Downing and family of Ellensburg, Wash., are in town looking for a vacant house.

H. L. Richardson of Harris, Mo., who has been visiting his brother, S. T. Richardson, a well known clothing dealer of this place, for a few days, continued his tour of the Pacific coast Monday. He will visit southern points and his brother will accompany him for a short distance.

Dr. R. W. Stearns and O. A. Jeldness departed for Coleson Monday on a business and pleasure trip.

F. Wisenor of Gayfield county, Washington, is in the valley picking out a location for his son and looking for a home for himself.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith of Chicago are recent visitors in Medford. They are stopping off here with old acquaintances on their trip through the northwest.

Mrs. H. S. Tuttle of San Francisco stopped off here Monday morning to visit Attorney Newman.

W. E. Johnson has returned from a hunting trip.

Fred Law arrived in Medford Saturday from Falls City, Or., to join his wife, who has been staying here for some time.

C. A. Fowler, who has been running a grocery store in West Medford, disposed of his interests recently and moved to Santa Ana, Cal.

Colonel Frank L. Tou Velle has returned from a trip to Portland, where he went to see his old instructor in an eastern law college, but who happens, incidentally at the present time, to be president of the United States.

W. V. Dennis of Ashland, who has been visiting friends here, returned home Monday morning.

W. F. Smith of Eagle Point was in the city on his way to Ashland, where he will visit J. Fern.

Sam Morris of Rock Point is in Medford on business.

O. M. Humebaugh of Ashland is in Medford on a short business trip.

E. A. Dunlap of Ashland was a Medford visitor Monday.

Mrs. Les Painter of Central Point returned home Sunday evening after a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. V. M. Cox of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pierce of Wilmington, Del., are visiting in the city and valley this week.

Frank J. Leonard of Kirby, Or., arrived in Medford Sunday and will look around.

T. E. Pottenger returned home Friday after a several days' visit in southern California. Mrs. Pottenger, who accompanied him, will remain in the south for some time longer.

Mrs. H. H. Calhoun left on No. 15 this morning for Phoenix, where she will attend the funeral of Henry Stanley.

H. Clementson and family of northern Minnesota, Lake of the Woods country, were in the valley visiting A. F. Ellestead of Central Point and looking over the Medford the first of the week. They have been visiting different towns along the coast for about three weeks.

John Lovestead, a Spokane man, was in the city Monday inquiring about the valley and looking for a place in the foothills where he could raise goats.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Armstrong and Mr. and Mrs. W. Lambert of Fairmont, Minn., stopped off to look over fruit land Monday and then continued their journey south. They say that this is the best place they have stopped off at during their tour of the west and very likely will return here to live.

Mrs. J. W. Pierpont of Jacksonville was in Medford Monday on her way to Yreka, Cal., where she will spend the winter with relatives.

Mrs. E. E. Smith of Yreka is visiting in Medford.

H. H. DeArmond of Grants Pass is spending a few days in Medford.

George Murray of Hanford, Cal., who has been visiting a few days with his sister, Mrs. G. F. Merriman, and other relatives of the city, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. J. T. Grubb is visiting her sister, Mrs. William A. Jones, having come all the way from Virginia to see her. She has not seen her sister or her sister's son, the sheriff, for many years.

Mrs. H. A. Holt of Woodburn arrived last night on a visit to M. A. Diggerson and family of this city.

FATAL CUPIDITY.

A Tragic Case of Treasure Hunting in Egypt.

A certain Egyptian native discovered the entrance of a tomb in the floor of his stable and at once proceeded to worm his way down the tunnel. This was the end of the man. His wife, finding that he had not returned two hours or so later, went down the newly found tunnel after him. That was the end of her also. In turn three other members of the family went down into the darkness, and that was the end of them. A native official was then called, and lighting his way with a candle, penetrated down the winding passage. The air was so foul that he was soon obliged to retreat, but he stated that he was just able to see in the distance ahead the bodies of the unfortunate peasants, all of whom had been overcome by what he quaintly described as "the evil lighting and bad climate." Various attempts at the rescue of the bodies having failed, we gave orders that this tomb should be regarded as their sepulcher and that its mouth should be sealed up. According to the natives there was evidently a vast hoard of wealth stored at the bottom of this tomb, and the would be robbers had met their death at the hands of the demon in charge of it, who had seized each man by the throat as he came down the tunnel and had strangled him.—A. E. P. Welgall in Putnam's.

GRATITUDE OF THIEVES.

Their Longing For Association With Honest Men.

The thief in the community is very much like the boy whose meanness or ruffianism has caused the other little children to band together to ostracize him. He may move about with a sullen swagger, carry a chip on his shoulder and a vicious gleam in his eye, but there is always a sob in his throat. So the thief is longing and aching to get back in the circle out of which he has been ruled. If any honest man wants to meet

On Hiring a Cook.
The woman in need of a cook was so well groomed and looked so generally prosperous that the manager of the employment agency thought he had at last found a place for the high priced French cook for whom he had been trying to find a situation. But the new customer would not even listen to the praises of the French cook.
"Don't mention French cooks to me," she said, "nor graduates of cooking schools. I've tried both. I like their cooking, and I don't object to the wages they ask, but they take up too much room. My kitchen isn't large enough to hold all the cooking utensils they require, and my income isn't large enough to buy them. Those stylish cooks need four times as many pots and pans and molds and things as ordinary cooks use. If I hire a fancy cook I shall have to move into a fancy apartment to get a kitchen big enough to accommodate her."
"That is a common complaint against these experts, foreign and American," sighed the manager. "I am beginning to think there must be something in it."—New York Sun.

The Twenty Cent Revenge.

She was in a very bad temper as she boarded an Amsterdam avenue car. Her temper was not improved by the fact that as she drew a quarter of a dollar from her jeweled gold purse the coin slipped from her fingers and rolled on the floor of the car. She made no move to recover the money, but when the conductor came in to collect her fare she pointed with the tip of her handsome parasol to the coin.
"I dropped my fare," she said snappishly. "Pick it up."
The young conductor looked her in the eye for just a moment, and then, stooping, he picked the coin from between the slats on the floor covering. Lelsucely he took four nickels from his pocket and put them where the quarter had been before. Maybe it was the effort of bending that made his face red. When he straightened up he rang up the fare, turned and sauntered back to the rear platform.—New York Press.

The Chauffeur's Rebuke.

An elderly colonel in a New York club is very inquisitive, and there is no question he hesitates to ask. The other day he saw drawn up before a hotel a blue motor car, and at the wheel of the car sat a chauffeur who had formerly been in his own employ. The colonel stopped and asked the chauffeur who his master was, how he liked his job and what wages he drew. The chauffeur answered these questions politely. There was a cold glitter in his eye, though. He was waiting for an opening. It came when the inquisitive old colonel said:
"Gaston, what—er—how much did your employer pay for this car?"
The fact is, sir," the chauffeur answered promptly, "I never had the impudence to ask him."

The Old Roman Ballot.

The ballot was first introduced into Rome in the second century B. C. This was the real Australian ballot. The voter received a sort of wooden slate covered with wax on which the names of all the candidates were scratched. He made holes in the wax opposite those of his choice and dropped his tablet in the box. After the downfall of the Roman republic popular government took a long sleep, and there was little use for a ballot till quite modern times.

Dorothy Dodd and Ultras

Styles for every day in the week. For outdoor and indoor wear. Exclusive designs, smart fashionable appearance. Judge them for yourselves. Courteous attention. Expert fitters and reasonable prices. All these are found at the popular East Side Shoe Store.

Edmeades Bros.
THE WEST SIDE SHOE STORE