MARKET CONDITIONS IN NEW YORK CITY

Sgobel & Day, under date of September 30, says of the pear market in New York:

We thought Bartletts were ended, but we have them coming in from Medford, a car a day, and although mostly small, largely 150 to 200 pears per box, they are selling around $3.50, while the 120 to 140 size this morning sold around $4.75. We sold yesterday one car of d'Anjous from Yakima section, assorted sizes, average $3.65. We also sold one car Santa Clara, Cal., half boxes Comice average $2.60; half boxes d'Anjou $1.88. There are hardly any pears grown nearby left excepting some Bartletts, and a few other varieties in cold storage, and all good pears will continue to sell high. Tomorrow we sell two cars d'Anjou from the northwest, one Medford and one Yakima, and will report same to you next time. Do not hesitate if you have any good pears to send them to New York, as a high market is absolutely certain if the pears are all right.

Concerning market conditions, Rae & Hatfield, under the same date, say:

With more favorable weather conditions prevailing, grape market showed quite an improvement, especially at the close of the sale. Woodbridge Tokays averaged $1.02. Florida $1.14 to $1.09. Elk Grove $1.11. Lodi 91c. Half Lug boxes sold $1.25 to $1.37½. Full long boxes $2.37½ to $2.75. Quite a demand for these packages here now.

Malaga car from Clotho in very bad condition, averaging 73c.

Salways in car from Clotho in poor condition, averaging 58c. Few Clings 68c. Levi Clings from Placerville sold today $1.12½.

Oregon Bartletts sold high, ranging $3 to $5.12½, average $3.28.

The Nash Grill makes a specialty of special dinners, banquets etc. Music every evening.

CONVICTED FORGER STARTS SCHOOL IN PRISON

GUTHRIE, Okla., October 5.—The work of James O'Neil, an Oklahoma convict serving ten years for forgery, who has, on his own initiative, gathered the unlettered convicts in the penitentiary at McAlester into a school, teaching them bookkeeping and typewriting in addition to the common school branches, is to receive recognition from the state officials, and probably be regularly detailed as the teacher of the prison school. State Superintendent E. D. Cameron will endeavor to arrange for a regular organization of the school at the penitentiary, and the furnishing of the necessary books for convicts. There has been no organization so far except that voluntarily brought about by the prisoners, although there are 300 prisoners at McAlester under twenty years of age, most of them practically unlettered.
