

USE MAPLE FLOORING

AND IF YOU WANT A GLAD SURPRISE AT THE CHEAPNESS OF IT LET US FIGURE YOUR ESTIMATES AND SUPPLY THE ABOVE. WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED A CARLOAD DIRECT FROM THE HOME OF THE HARDWOODS. NOTHING CAN TAKE ITS PLACE FOR KITCHENS, ELIMINATING THE NECESSITY OF LINOLEUM. FOR LIVING AND DINING ROOMS, DO YOU KNOW OF ANYTHING THAT GIVES AS PLEASING EFFECTS OR ADDS AS MUCH CLASS TO YOUR HOUSE?

QUALITY COUNTS BIG PINES LUMBER CO.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

THE WEATHER.

Probably fair tonight, Thursday fair.

A. S. Williams is down from Eugene on business this week.

See Prof. Anton Romanoff, formerly court violinist of Austrian emperor, for lessons on violin, guitar and mandolin. Leave orders at Nash hotel.

H. S. Kelly of Trail was transacting business in the city the first of the week.

Best meal for the least money at the Spot cafe.

J. H. Carlton and Dolph Carlton passed through here from Eagle Point on their way to Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Perkins arrived here from Seattle to look for a location.

Anderson W. Cannon, clerk of the United States court and district court of Portland, and brother-in-law of Jesse Euygart, stopped off at Medford the first of the week on a visit.

Leroy Van Lehr came from his home in Stafford, Kan., to find out what the Rogue valley is like.

Hear Professor Romanoff in violin solos every evening the Nash Grill.

J. F. Gilbert returned to his home in Peru, Ind., after a few days' visit with N. J. Urley and family.

Mrs. Sarah North, sister-in-law of Mayor Canon, left Tuesday for Los Angeles, where she will spend the winter.

Nash Grill—open all the time. Finest service between Portland and San Francisco.

Mrs. William Owings and son, J. A. Owings, and daughter, Mrs. J. B. Morgan, leave today on the 3 o'clock train for Los Angeles.

The Nash Grill makes a specialty of special dinners, banquets etc. Music every evening.

W. F. Estes of Dunsuir, Cal., who has been visiting Mrs. Bert Orr for the past few days, left for home Wednesday.

A. L. Corey has purchased a small house in Ross addition at a cost of $350 and will improve the property.

When attending the industrial fair at Ashland be sure and stop at the East Side Inn, Ashland's new and most popular hotel, new furnished, home cooking and near the fair grounds. Mrs. Frank Lennart, manager. 170

Willie Sultz, a local barber, purchased a lot in Page addition for $300, as did also O. E. Stinson.

Orders for sweet cream or butter-milk promptly filled. Phone the creamery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Walker of Callahan, Cal., stopped off here a short time on the return trip from the Seattle fair.

Mrs. M. L. Webster of San Francisco has been a visitor of John Osborn and family for the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Welker of Siskiyou county, California, are sight seeing in the Rogue valley.

W. D. Anderson of Ashland is visiting friends in the city.

H. Wanchecke of Sunnyville, Cal., is in the city looking for a location.

Those who wish to make a study of the fruit industry in Jackson county with special reference to pears, will do well to visit the district fair in Ashland and look over the exhibit there. The exhibition of fancy pears has probably never been surpassed.

H. M. Halladay and wife left Wednesday for southern California, to spend the winter.

F. D. Pettes of Riverside, Cal., is investigating the reports which he has heard of this place.

Roy I. Nogat adds one more to the list of New Yorkers who are looking over the country. He is from the town of Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Andrews of Kenton, O., old friends of Councilman Eifer, are visiting Medford with a view to locating.

F. J. Bender of Woodland, Cal., is sightseeing in the valley this week.

S. C. Appleby comes from San Jose Cal., to look over the country around here with the intention of investing.

Mrs. Peter Applegate and daughter stopped off at Medford Wednesday morning on their way to Central Point, where they go to visit Mrs. Applegate's son.

Ella Gaunyaw, public stenographer, room 4, Palm building.

Mrs. Grace Wilson of Barry, Ill., is an eastern visitor here this week.

The Louvre Cafe—open all the time. Finest service between Portland and San Francisco.

Mrs. F. M. Amy of the city left for Central Point to visit friends and relatives.

Special music every evening during dinner at the Nash Grill.

S. C. Benn came down from Talent on business this week.

R. P. Neil went to Jacksonville on business Wednesday.

Why rush home? Try the Spot Cafe's 25c dinner.

W. F. Smith and family of Ashland passed through here on their way to Eagle Point Wednesday morning.

Rev. M. N. Bledsoe of Kinmath Falls stopped off at Medford Wednesday morning on his way to Eagle Point.

Phone 3303 for tea or coffee.

J. B. Seifert of Enterprise, Or., was in the metropolis this week.

The Louvre Cafe makes a specialty of special dinners, banquets and theater parties.

S. A. Nye has just moved into his fine eight-room, $6000 residence on East Seventh.

Merchants' lunch served daily at the Louvre Cafe from 11:30 till 2:35c. An elaborate menu.

WANTED—First-class porter at the Moore hotel.

FOR SALE—A brand new complete job and newspaper plant and outfit with large stock of paper and first-class furniture; two publications; will sell for less than cost of outfit; $1100 cash or $700 cash and balance of $500 on time. Address: C. E. D., care of Medford Daily Tribune.

The A B C of Advertising

Advertising Attracts Attention

Brightens Backward Business

Catches Circulating Coin

Weston, Oregon, has better schools and more business, says the Leader, since the Normal school closed than before.

BIJOU THEATRE

BILLY EMPEY VAN, Manager.
TONIGHT AND WEDNESDAY
Richard Darling Stock Co.

"A Soldier's Sweetheart"

WANTED
Timber and Coal Lands
ENGINEERING AND SURVEYING CONTRACTS TAKEN AND ESTIMATES FURNISHED.
B. H. Harris & Co.
MEDFORD, OREGON
Office in Jackson County Bank Upstairs

Mrs. Irene Hampton Isaacs
Instructor of Piano, Liszt Method
Studio of Residence, North Orange Street

YOU may have an idea that our store and our clothes are not very different from other stores and other clothes; that it doesn't make very much difference where you buy your suit or overcoat; nor very much difference what you buy. When you come here and ask for clothes, you'll realize that such an idea is a mistake. These clothes are different; they're all-wool, and that's unlike most clothes offered to you. They're perfectly tailored, and correct in every detail of style, and they fit.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

It's such clothes as these that make this store different; you can't buy them elsewhere.

Suits $20 to $45

Deuel & Kentner
MISSION BLOCK