BIG MONEY MADE IN OREGON HOGS

Stockyards Manager Shows Avenue Where Gold Awaits Farmer.

PORTLAND, Oct. 14.—"Oregon farmers should raise hogs if they want to make money fast," said D. O. Lively, general agent of the Portland Union stockyards.

"Oregon grass or alfalfa is good feed for the hogs while they are growing, and the wheat need only be used in hardening the flesh while the animals are being prepared for market.

"Hogs for the market are very scarce, because the business of hog-raising has been neglected. Heavy importations of pork and bacon from the east have been the result, with the consequent high prices for such things.

"Poor hogs can be obtained now at 5 cents a pound, while fat hogs bring 8 cents. The farmer who buys a poor hog and adds 100 pounds to its weight can, by the expenditure of $3 for feed, realize $8 for the additional weight and 3 cents on the original weight of the hog within a short time."

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Kirby of Applegate have returned home after a short visit with friends in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. George Orr of Lewellyn, Neb., and Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Clancy of Big Springs, Nev., were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Orr during the week.

More Than Enough Is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys.

FEW PEARS LEFT IN CALIFORNIA

The following gives the number of cars of deciduous fruit shipped to all points by all members of the California Fruit Distributors for the week (seven days) ending Monday night, October 11:

Pears, nine cars—A few cars of this fruit still continue to appear on our report, and next week's report may show a few more.

Grapes, 292 cars—Owing to the bad weather prevailing last week, the shipment of this fruit has shown a material decrease. Now, however, the weather is good again, and it is expected that the movement will soon reach normal proportions.

Since our last letter reports have reached this office concerning the Emperor grape crop, and they are of not so encouraging a nature as those previously received. The crop will not be as large as has been expected, neither will the proportion of fancy fruit be as large as we hoped for.

Cornichon grapes continue to develop finely, and are improving in quality every day.

Weather—Since our last letter the weather has been satisfactory in every respect. It is warm and pleasant and mild winds are moving the moisture of last week's precipitation in the best manner possible for the good of the fruit.

Prepaid Railroad Orders.

"Something which is of considerable interest to the public generally and which is perhaps not generally known in effect between stations of the Southern Pacific company and all points in the United States. By means of this system tickets may be purchased at Medford from any place in the United States and mail, ad or telegraphed direct to the party wishing to come here.

What He Could Do.

During the South African war there was a young officer just from Standhurst who was attached to General French's staff. The young fellow has himself achieved some distinction since then and shall be nameless.

A Serious Question.

"My dear Mr. Fallows," said the doctor, "I will admit that I am not quite decided as to whether or not yours is a constitutional disease."

Utilizing Her.

"My dear, the hired girl has quit." "Well, that's all right. Just drop a line to your mother inviting her to visit us. She'll do the housework until we can get another maid."—New York Journal.
