

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

THE WEATHER.

Rain tonight, Sunday, fair.

E. Eads has brought his family here from Sheridan, Wyo., to live and will purchase a home at once. A. Eads is a brother of the Eads boys of this city.

Turkey dinner, 50c, at Emerick cafe tomorrow.

Mrs. Henry Leaders and daughter of Medford is visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. B. Overhault of Talent.

Fifty thousand No. 1 grape roots while they last, $25 per thousand at "Cook's," the nurseryman. 194

Mrs. Fred Monohan left for her home in Santa Anna after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. T. E. Daniels.

Five-room house, barn and two lots on North Riverside avenue for sale at $1500. Inquire of W. T. York & Co. 192

R. A. Wells, an orchardist from Little Rock, Ark., arrived in the city Friday and is looking over fruit land in the valley. Mr. Wells is especially interested in the manner of caring for the fruit and he is studying the methods of growers here.

Special a la carte menu at the Louvre Cafe tomorrow. 192

County Recorder Burnett of Jacksonville passed through here on his way to Ashland the first of the week.

Best paper in southern Oregon—The Tribune.

F. F. Moorfe, of Denver, Col., is a business visitor to the city this week.

Don't miss that 50c turkey dinner at the Emerick cafe tomorrow. 192

Gustav F. Petzel is a recent arrival from Stockton, Cal.

The Louvre Cafe makes a speciality of banquets and supper parties.

R. W. Grout of Roseburg is looking over the valley this week.

Orders for sweet cream or buttermilk promptly filled. Phone the creamery.

The Hon. W. H. Newell, president of the state board of horticulture, who has been conducting investigations in Ashland, left for Hood River Friday.

Why rush home? Try the Spot Cafe's 25c dinner.

A. B. Cornell and A. C. Holcomb of Grants Pass are orchardists in the city this week.

Special a la carte menu at the Louvre Cafe tomorrow. 192

Professor P. J. O'Gara is back from Ashland today, but expects to return immediately to put the finishing touches on the work at that place.

Ella Gaunyaw, public stenographer, room 4, Palm building.

The Hon. A. H. Carson, commissioner of the third horticultural district, left for Grants Pass Friday evening after a profitable stay in Ashland.

Phone 3303 for tea or coffee.

Miss E. M. Thum of Santa Anna, Cal., left for home Friday after a short visit here with friends.

Turkey dinner tomorrow, 50c, at Emerick cafe. 192

J. M. von der Maas of this place left Saturday morning for Derby, where he will visit with friends.

Spices and extracts at 30 So. G street.

Edith Fredenburg of Trail, who has been visiting in Ashland for some time, passed through here on her way to Eagle Point the other day.

Southern Oregon Tea and Coffee Co., 36 So. G street.

J. M. Swanin of Sacramento was in the city Saturday on his way to Portland on a visit.

Best meal for the least money at the Spot cafe.

A. H. Sandstrom of Albany is in the city visiting friends.

Special a la carte menu at the Louvre Cafe tomorrow. 192

A. W. Cork and family of Rockland, Me., have come to live in the Rogue valley.

Table d'hote dinner at the Nash Grill Sunday evening. Special music. Miss Emma Stone returned Saturday from Ashland, where she went to attend the teachers' institute.

Special a la carte menu at the Louvre Cafe tomorrow. 192

V. O. Smith, cashier of the First National bank of Ottawa, Kan., is in the valley visiting friends. Mr. Smith is on his vacation and he likes the west.

Table d'hote dinner at the Nash Grill Sunday evening. Special music. M. F. Eggleston, city recorder of Ashland, passed through here on his way to Jacksonville to transact court business.

The Louvre Cafe makes a speciality of banquets and supper parties.

Will Murphy was in Ashland on business recently.

The Nash Grill, finest service between Portland and San Francisco.

Mrs. E. J. Hain of Ashland was in town the first of the week on her way to Eagle Point, where she goes to visit H. A. Florey.

The Louvre Cafe makes a speciality of banquets and supper parties.

A football game was played Saturday afternoon at Ashland between Grants Pass high school and the Ashland boys.

A shipment today of all kinds of fresh fish, dressed chickens always in stock. Call and see us. Rogue River Fish Co. 192

In the absence of Rev. W. T. Goulder, who is hunting in the mountains, Rev. Hoxie will preach at the Methodist church, South, on Sunday.

The mother of Mrs. T. E. Daniels, who has been visiting in the city for some time, has returned to her home in Santa Ana, Cal.

Mrs. O. J. Shirley returned to her home in Talent from a shopping trip to Medford.

M. B. Hassel of Centralia, Wash., continued his tour of the Rogue River valley the other day, when he left this place for Ashland. Mr. Hassel says "this city looks pretty good to me."

Frank Farrell, Ralph Burgess, Paul McDonald and Eldon Hill, local football boys, departed for Ashland Saturday to witness the game to be played there between Grants Pass and Ashland high schools.

T. E. Ward of Shelbyville, Tenn., is staying at the Nash this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Huff of Detroit, Mich., are looking over the Rogue valley and making Medford their seat during the tour.

George H. Kesterman of Grants Pass was in the city on business the last of the week.

J. H. Block of Kansas City, Mo., who has been playing the city a business visit, left for the east Friday.

Mrs. J. H. Wood, who has been visiting for a short time with Mrs. L. B. Warner, left for home Saturday on No. 15.

Mrs. J. Brown of Gold Hill came down the last of the week to visit Mrs. H. G. Shearer.

S. V. Hamlin of Grants Pass, who came here a short time ago, has decided to make Medford his home.

J. C. Milne of Grand Junction, Col., who has been looking over the Rogue valley for the last few days, left for Ashland Saturday.

Roxy Shine, Bessie and Beatrice Moore and Sarah Beswick, pupils of St. Mary's academy, left for their homes in Ashland Saturday morning.

Mrs. A. J. Harney of Ashland came down the other day to visit her daughter, Mrs. A. Kippel.

Four drunks were arrested last night and one of them proved to be a fellow, Smith, who skipped about a year ago when working off a sentence. This fellow was the first to be asked his name, and when he gave the name of Smith the other saw the light and said their name was Smith. The men were put to work on the road.

D. E. Phipps, superintendent of the Phipps orchard east of here, was in town Saturday afternoon.

An 18-pound pumpkin was brought in Saturday from the Hall place, north of here, and placed on exhibition in the Oregon Orchards Syndicate office. As no derriek was handy, two men took the vegetable and hoisted it into the display window. In the same office displayed in the window are some prize winning Massachusetts apples sent to Mrs. R. H. Parsons by her father. It's a wonder the fruit inspectors allowed the apples to be shipped into the country, they are so serawny and blenished.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

At the Moore—H. S. Smith, Grants Pass; A. C. Hough, Grants Pass; M. Epstein, San Francisco; C. R. McWilliams, Syracuse; J. H. Block, Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Dickerman, Duluth; J. M. Beach, Kansas City; C. A. Eitel, Gresham; Geo.

Dickey, San Francisco; Stanley Turner, Boston; J. E. Dresser, Seattle; D. Ullin, William Hahn, Robert Hendrickson, R. H. Hoith, H. Cutley, H. Rodgers, Portland.

At the Nash—William Huff and wife, Detroit; T. E. Ward, Shelbyville; F. P. Roose, Denver; William Hinebaugh, Ashland; George H. Kesterman, Grants Pass; G. W. Goodurn, Lester L. Kahn, Ed E. Eitel, C. J. Tyler, H. Lipman, Thad A. Young, Stanley Turner, San Francisco; H. Goodman, Los Angeles; Mark J. Sloman, Rochester; George M. Gibson, San Francisco.

EDEN PRECINCT ITEMS.

A. Alford will have a bumper crop of apples ready for shipment soon.

W. F. Dunn of Talent was down at C. Cary's garden place Wednesday buying vegetables.

L. A. Rose has had several of his teams and men at work in North Talent finishing up the cement bridge across Anderson creek.

Mrs. James Helms and son were down to Medford on business last Thursday. Mrs. Helms has great responsibility since her husband's sickness.

Mrs. E. O. Rense was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey, the last of the week.

E. R. Oatman has charge of the packing for the Estep orchard. This orchard, known as the Pellett orchard, has the heaviest crop of any orchard in the vicinity of Talent, and will bring the owner several thousand dollars this season.

Miss Katie Aldredge, a former Talent girl, but now of Myrtle Creek, was married to Mark Fern of Fern Valley last Tuesday. The young couple returned to the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. A. B. Fern, on Wednesday, where they will reside. Everyone joins in congratulations and best wishes.

L. A. Rose, our efficient road supervisor, met with an accident one day last week, which rendered him unconscious for several minutes and which took him a couple of days before he got over the shock. The horse he was driving in a cart fell, throwing Mr. Rose out over the horse striking the back of his head, jarring the spinal cord, which caused him great pain. Fortunately he had a gentle horse.

* TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY. *

WANTED—Woman for plain sewing. Room 24, Palm Rooming House, Main and Grape. 193

FOR RENT—Barn, suitable for four horses. Inquire at Tribune office. * FOR SALE—One disc gang plow in good condition. Address E. E. Morrison, R F D No. 1. 197

WANTED—An elderly single man to take care of horses on ranch and do light work around the place. Address W. care of this office. 197

WANTED—At once, teams for plowing. Address P. O. Box No. 263.

Very realistic romance at the Savoy Theater.

The crowded house at "The Savoy" last night witnessed one of the most realistic comedy pictures ever thrown upon a screen. The story, a simple one of everyday life woven about an umbrella; it fairly breaks forth humor and laughter. The pantomime is very successful making the picture exceedingly entertaining. "Onawandah," an Indian drama, and "The Story of a Banknote" are excellent dramas, which grip your attention from start to finish. Don't fail to witness this program. Entire change of program tomorrow night. Watch for it. The Savoy. One dime.

HUSSEY'S

The Store That Saves You Money

Pure lead blown, bell top $1.00 Each
Glasses; no better quality made; here today
25c Per Set
50c per dozen.

Want something nice? Then take a look at our window of hand painted China Plate today at your choice, $1.00 Each

HOSIERY

For The Family

Today is Saturday, Hosiery Day, at Hussey's. Hosiery for every member of the family and the best values to be found in Medford. Hose for father, mother, sister, brother and the baby, any size.

2 Pair for 25 cents

You can't complete your shopping without first calling at

Don't waste it—save your money by doing your Saturday shopping at

HUSSEY'S

THE BUSY STORE

DON'T FORGET. . . .

the fact that L. B. Warner, the pioneer nurseryman of southern Oregon, who practically speaking was handling trees when other concerns were in their swaddling clothes and has 16 years of square dealing back of him in Jackson county alone, will soon be ready to make deliveries of his nursery stock, among the lot being an extra fine stock of

Bartlett and D'Anjou Pears

with from five to seven-foot tops; also a splendid line of Elberta Late, and Early Crawford and Muir Peaches. All commercial varieties of pears, cherries, Newtown, Spitzenberg and Jonathan apples, as well as a full and complete line of bulbs, roots, shrubbery and ornamental trees at prices that you can afford to pay and still be assured of receiving absolutely high grade stock. Remember the name and the place.

L. B. WARNER Office with Warner, Wortman & Gore
MEDFORD, OREGON