THE ROAD MEETING.

The road committee, E. V. Carter, M. F. Eggleston, R. A. Minkler, E. V. Mills, R. P. Neil and G. M. Grainger, appointed at the meeting Monday evening, to ascertain what steps to take toward the establishment of the road, reported at the meeting at 4:00 o'clock, yesterday afternoon. The report consisted in the appointment of three committees, a Finance, a Viewing and a Corresponding.

The duty of the Finance committee is to obtain contributions; that of the Viewing committee is to inspect the road and estimate the cost of procedure; and that of the Corresponding committee is to correspond with neighboring and co-operative towns. A meeting of the Corresponding committee is called for 7:30 to-night, the object being to outline a plan of action so that business may be begun immediately.

Word was received from the Chamber of Commerce at Portland, stating their willingness to co-operate with Ashland in the enterprise.
