

The Ashland Advertiser.

Published Wednesday.

Monarch of Amateur Local News Journals.

W. Y. CROWSON, } EDITOR, . . .
 } PUBLISHER,
 } PROPRIETOR.

— TERMS. —

Subscription, One Year, $25.
 " Six Months, 15.
 Sample copies mailed freely.

Advertising rates, }
 Discounts, } Made known upon
 Terms to Agents, } application.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADvertising Agent, 21 Merchant's
 Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. The ADVERTISER is kept on file in his office.

The ADVERTISER has the Largest Circulation of any Paper of its Class.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19, 1895.

EDITORIAL.

Hereafter, the ADVERTISER will be printed on better paper.

With the establishment of the foundry and the opening up of the woolen mill, the future prosperity of Ashland is assured.

If you receive this paper as a sample copy, kindly look it over, then send in a quarter for a year's subscription.—Fifty-two times a year for twenty-five cents.

Perhaps times are hard, but Ashland people can swell as fat a subscription list to promote a good enterprise as the next one. Such things denote returning prosperity.

The people of Linkville are unanimously in favor of the establishment of the Ashland-Linkville wagon road, and with their co-operation and that of Portland also, there is no reason why the road should not be put through.

LOCAL BRIEFLETS.

Remember us for Job Printing.

—Read the Shorthand ad. on page 4 of this issue.

—Miss Nellie Ewan went to Albany last Friday.

—Bert Calhoun was in town on his wheel Sunday.

—Perhaps you don't know it, but now is the time to subscribe.

—Dr. A. C. Caldwell, formerly a dentist here, was in Ashland Sunday.

—Mr Gelisbe, of the firm of Bell & Co., of Portland, was in town Monday.

—G. W. Crowson returned from his trip to California, Sunday evening.

—L. George is building an addition to his house in the eastern part of town.

—It pays to advertise in the right journal; this paper is the one. Try it!

—There was a light frost on the foothills about Ashland last Saturday night.

—Miss Halceyon Whitmore left for her home in Klamath county last Friday.

—J. R. Beamer and family have moved into E. V. Carter's house on the boulevard.

—Geo. Crowson, who went back East some weeks ago, started on his return to Ashland yesterday.

—The closing exercises of St. Mary's Academy at Jacksonville, Ore., were held last Friday afternoon.

—Herbert McCarthy returned from Grant's Pass, where he has been visiting with friends, last Saturday.

—Victor Mayer went to Sam's Valley last Saturday, in company with Stanley Vaughn and James Donoughue.

—W. J. Virgin returned from San Francisco last Sunday evening, where he has been purchasing machinery and water pipe for the flouring mill here.