L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADvertising Agent, 21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. The ADVERTISER is kept on file in his office.

The "ADVERTISER" has the Largest Circulation
 of any Paper of its Class.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 3, 1895.

EDITORIAL.

Subscribers are earnestly requested to report all cases of non-deliverance of their paper.

The larger papers of the city will confer a favor upon the ADVERTISER by giving credit for items taken from its columns.

The editor and publisher of the AD-VERTISER is not as old as many of our readers suppose, but is a lad of sixteen years.

The Herald, of Manchester, Iowa, makes the following assertion:

"The Herald has the largest circulation of any amateur weekly paper published in America."

The ADVERTISER claims the same distinction, so, in all friendliness and good will, we ask the Herald to prove its assertion.

If old subscribers wish their paper discontinued, they must so inform us. This taking the paper out of the office, reading it and then returning it will not work here. According to the laws governing subscriptions, due notice must be given and all arrearages paid before a subscription is discontinued. Please bear this in mind.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Be sure to remember that to-morrow is the 4th of July.

Go to L. V. High's Tonsorial Parlor
 for a refreshing shave or a hair-cut.

The first dewberries of the season were in market last Friday. They were grown by G. Y. Heaton.

Remember us for Job Printing.

The Ashland "Class of '95" will "take in" the celebration at Medford to-morrow.

Read the Shorthand ad. on page 4 of this issue.

To climb to the top of old Grizzly seems to be the ambition of every young Ashlander.

Crislie and Klum opened up a butcher shop at the Murphy Bros. old stand near Wm. Hevener's grocery.

Twenty-five cents a year.

The household goods of J. L. Fenton, one of the proprietors of the foundry, arrived last Friday. Mr Fenton has rented the A. S. Hammond house.

Perhaps you don't know it, but now is the time to subscribe.

The porch of Hotel Oregon is being re-floored. J. W. Schmidt and B. R.
 Willits are doing the work.

G. W. Crowson is sole dealer in "Peerless" fruit paper in Ashland.

Alexandria peaches are beginning to ripen.

It pays to advertise in the right journal; this paper is the one. Try it!

To-morrow's the day we celebrate.
 Go to Medford and "have all the fun you want, but don't get gay."

Lillie Watson, Hypatia Klum, Jessie Wagner, Fred Carter, Henry Galey and John McCall composed a party that went to the summit of Grizzly Peak, Sunday.

A pound of "Peerless paper will pack more peaches than any other make; consequently it is the cheapest to buy. G.
 W. Crowson, Pioneer block, is the only dealer in Southern Oregon who sells it.

A fine line of Job Printing is being turned out by the ADVERTISER office.
 Best work in the city at the lowest price.

Sign boards were erected, yesterday, opposite the Opera House, on which to display posters for the coming circus.
