EDITORIAL.

For some time past, we have been greatly rushed with job printing.

Notice our new title, "Monarch of the Amateurs." We will uphold this title against all the amateur newspaper world.

Our advertising space is taxed to the utmost this week, which shows the value of the ADVERTISER as an advertising medium. We shall add a supplement within a few weeks.

Perhaps you remember that a few weeks ago we promised to enlarge when support justified it. If support continues to increase as it has since our re-appearance, we shall put in a new press and double our size before many months have passed.

If some of our amateur exchanges do not respond immediately they will be cancelled from our mailing list. It is immaterial to us whether you exchange or not, because we do not have to consider our exchanges to prove the largest bona fide circulation of any amateur newspaper in the world.

 in Ashland cemetery.

Myer & Gregory are too busy improving their headquarters to write a new ad. for this issue. They have extended their shelving for the reception of their new stock and are having a new modern front put in, so that, with many other improvements, they have one of the most attractive and accommodating dry goods houses in Southern Oregon.
