

The Ashland Advertiser.

Published Every Wednesday.

MONARCH OF THE AMATEURS.

W. Y. CROWSON, } EDITOR, . .
 PUBLISHER,
 PROPRIETOR.

— TERMS. —

Subscription, One Year, $.25.
 " Six Months,15.
 Sample copies mailed freely.

Advertising rates, } Made known upon
 Discounts, } application.
 Terms to Agents, }

Entered at the post-office at Ashland, Oregon, as second-class matter.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING Agent, 21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. The ADVERTISER is kept on file in his office.

The "ADVERTISER" has the Largest Circulation of any Paper of its Class.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1895.

EDITORIAL.

Look out for our new ads. next week.

Our subscription list is increasing at the rate of three per day. With such increasing support, our prosperity and success are well insured.

The ADVERTISER, of Ashland, Ore., is a new paper on our exchange list. The paper is a good sample of artistic printing.—Sharon, (Pa.) Star.

Souvenir edition of Squibs has just arrived. The edition contains 74 pages filled with excellent contents and well displayed ads. The journal is from the press of Bull brothers, of Seattle, and reflects great credit upon their ability as printers and publishers.

In about two weeks, we shall begin the publication of some of the literary productions of D. W. Hawkins, a local writer of talented ability. Mr. Hawkins is a gifted writer, and the products of his pen cannot fail to be interesting and instructive to readers of good literature.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Best stock of shoes in the city at the Racket Store.

Milk Shakes are only 5 cents at the Candy Palace.

Two of the bolts in the left cylinder of engine No. 1903 were broken last Friday while coming over the Siskiyou.

G. W. Crowson is sole dealer in "Peerless" fruit paper in Ashland.

Twenty-five cents a year.

BORN.—In Ashland, Sunday, July 28, 1895, to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Winter, a daughter.

Great bargains in clothing at the Racket Store.

The people have been shut down to half rations on the irrigation water that they have paid for, in order to give the flour mill more free water to run extra machinery.

Get your Fishing Tackle at Sayles's Candy Store. Full line.

Remember us for Job Printing.

Last Thursday was the "banner day" of the blackberry season, 783 gallons having been shipped on that day. The average daily shipment for the week was about 500 gallons.

It pays to advertise in the right journal; this paper is the one. Try it!

Our Edstern exchanges all agree that the Great Wallace Shows are the greatest ever in this country in the way of size and quality. These shows have created a furore wherever they have been.

Fine line Fashion Plates at Sayles's News Depot.

A fine line of Job Printing is being turned out by the ADVERTISER office. Best work in the city at the lowest price.

Fred C. Kuhn now has his cigar factory, opposite city hall, in full operation and will have a stock of cigars ready for the trade in about ten days. Our merchants should give him their hearty support.

Myer & Gregory are closing out their stock in the Racket Store at greatly reduced prices.

A pound of "Peerless paper will pack more peaches than any other make; consequently it is the cheapest to buy. G. W. Crowson, Pioneer block, is the only dealer in Southern Oregon who sells it.