

The Ashland Advertiser.

Published Every Wednesday.

MONARCH OF THE AMATEURS.

W. Y. CROWSON, } EDITOR, . .
PUBLISHER,
PROPRIETOR.

— TERMS. —

Subscription, One Year, $.25.
" Six Months,15.
Sample copies mailed freely.

Advertising rates, } Made known upon
Discounts, } application.
Terms to Agents, }

All ads., notices, etc., when not paid in advance, run until ordered out.

Entered at the post-office at Ashland, Oregon, as second-class matter.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING Agent, 21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. The ADVERTISER is kept on file in his office.

The "ADVERTISER" has the Largest Circulation of any Paper of its Class.

ASHLAND, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 21, 1895

EDITORIAL.

We have a thoroughly equipped job office and know how to use it. When you need anything in this line, give us a trial. Our work is guaranteed to please.

The Ashland ADVERTISER is on hand again as fresh and bright as ever. We notice that the editor says he will enlarge soon. Bro. Crowson is a hustler of the right sort.—Sunbeam, Galva, Ill.

The Normal School Notes form an interesting feature of this issue. Hereafter, they will always be found in the position that they now occupy, one of the columns of the supplement.

With this issue, we begin the publication of some of the writings of D. W. Hawkins. They will be published in continuous parts in the supplement. The subject of the piece this week is the "Reform Motion," and the piece is well worth the pursuit of all who are interested in the prosperity of our country.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Get your Fishing Tackle at Sayles's Candy Store. Full line.

If you don't read the ADVERTISER, you don't get half the news. Subscribe.

The first full car of peaches shipped from Ashland this season was shipped by G. W. Crowson, yesterday.

Success can hardly be applied to the attempt to rain yesterday, but it cooled the air and laid the dust.

Fine line Fashion Plates at Sayles's News Depot.

The Re-union will take place here next month, 17-21.

The smoke has cleared away somewhat; just enough to allow the sun to shine.

Perhaps you don't know it, but now is the time to subscribe.

A Social Dance will be given in Granite Hall next Friday night. Tickets 50 cents. A good social time.

G. W. Crowson is sole dealer in "Peerless" fruit paper in Ashland.

Things brought good prices at the sale of A. Millsap's household goods last Saturday. This indicates that times are improving.

The Crawford peach crop is very short this year. Good prices are being realized.

Milk Shakes are only 5 cents at the Candy Palace.

Don't overlook the announcement of the Department of Music of State Normal on fourth page.

Remember us for Job Printing.

Subscriptions are coming in quite rapidly at present. Bring yours in with the rest. Only twenty-five cents a year.

Go to Myer and Gregory for all kinds of furnishing goods at bed rock prices.

The shingling of the Episcopal church was finished to-day.

One year, only twenty-five cents.

It pays to advertise in the right journal; this paper is the one. Try it!

The Crater Lake party, composed of Max Webster, Fred, George and Henry Carter, Warren Williams and Clarence Galey, returned home Friday. They report a most enjoyable time.