

The Ashland Advertiser.

Published Every Wednesday.

MONARCH OF THE AMATEURS.

W. Y. CROWSON, } EDITOR, . .
                          } PUBLISHER,
                          } PROPRIETOR.

— TERMS. —

Subscription, One Year, . . . . . $ .25.
                          Six Months, . . . . . 15.

Sample copies mailed freely.

Advertising rates, } Made known upon
Discounts, . . . . . } application.
Terms to Agents, }

All ads., notices, etc., when not paid in advance, run until ordered out.

Entered at the post-office at Ashland, Oregon, as second-class matter.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING Agent, 21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. The ADVERTISER is kept on file in his office.

The "ADVERTISER" has the Largest Circulation of any Paper of its Class.

ASHLAND, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 4, 1895.

EDITORIAL.

Owing to great rush of work at the opening of school, there were no Normal School Notes handed in this week.

If those who know a first class job when they see it wish to see a good job that is a good job, their attention is called to the covers of the books of the pupils of the public schools. The forms were set up by the ADVERTISER.

We have placed an order with our local dealer, E. A. Sherwin, for a large and complete stock of stationery. The order will be filled in San Francisco, and when the goods arrive, we will be in a position to furnish you superior work and material at bed rock prices.

One of many. We publish this one on account of its brevity.

San Francisco, Sept. 1, 1895.

I admire the style of your paper very much and consider it an ideal amateur publication. With the best wishes for your paper in the future, I remain,

Yours respectfully,
W. E. Jackson.

BREVITIES.

School has begun.

Remember us for Job Printing.

A total eclipse of the moon occurred last night. "It was out of sight,"—the moon.

One year, only twenty-five cents.

It pays to advertise in the right journal; this paper is the one. Try it!

The game season is now open and grouse and quail may be shot until the first of December.

G. W. Crowson is sole dealer in "Peerless" fruit paper in Ashland.

The Normal School opened Monday with an attendance of fifty students, and more coming.

Perhaps you don't know it, but now is the time to subscribe.

The pickers and packers employed in the Stewart pear orchards had a general good time last night, "in the dark of the moon."

Go to Myer and Gregory for all kinds of furnishing goods at bed rock prices.

Preparatory for the coming Reunion, the old soldiers have "tried their hand" at carpenter work and erected a pair of arches across Main street near Hotel Oregon. When decorated, these arches will form an attractive feature of the celebration.

City Council Proceedings.

September 2, 1895.

A petition signed by sixty-six citizens asking for a diminution of the cost of the city electric lights from $147 to $85 per month was referred to the street committee for investigation and report.

A petition requesting free use of city water for church purposes was presented and read, and resulted in the allowance of free use of city water for drinking and baptismal purposes but not for irrigation.

The street committee reported, that owing to cost of opening the street and present financial condition of the city, it would not be best to carry out the proposal to open a street from Matson's blacksmith shop, running along Ashland creek, and intersecting Granite street near Mrs. Blanton's residence.

Bills to the amount of $408 were ordered paid.