

THE ASHLAND ADVERTISER.

Published Every Wednesday.

Monarch of the Amateurs.

W. Y. CROWSON, } EDITOR, . .
 } PUBLISHER,
 } PROPRIETOR.

— TERMS. —

Subscription, One Year, $.25.
" " Six Months,15.
Sample copies mailed freely.

Advertising rates, } Made known upon
Discounts, } application.
Terms to Agents, }

All ads., notices, etc., when not paid in advance, run until ordered out.

Entered at the post-office at Ashland, Oregon, as second-class matter.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING Agent, 21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. The ADVERTISER is kept on file in his office.

The "ADVERTISER" has the Largest Circulation of any Paper of its Class.

ASHLAND, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 11, 1895.

EDITORIAL.

Our complete stock of paper, embracing a full line of commercial stationery and material for all kinds of work turned out by a first class office, has arrived. We are now in a position to give you the finest work and material in the city at the lowest price.

Since last issue, we have increased the facilities in the job department of our office by six fonts of the latest and most attractive styles of type, cases for all, ink, and printing material in general, and we now have one of the best equipped job offices in Southern Oregon.

The faculty of the Southern Oregon State Normal is doing its share toward making the school a success. There are plenty of students, too, and more coming. What they want now, is a boys' dormitory, and our citizens should take enough interest in the institution to build one. The hearty support of the citizens is needful to make the school a glowing success.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

To-morrow is Pioneer Day.

The boys of the High School have a new foot ball.

Remember us for Job Printing.

The Misses Webling, to-morrow night. General Admission, 25 cents.

It pays to advertise in the right journal; this paper is the one. Try it!

Our Northern exchanges speak in highly complimentary terms of the entertainment given by the Misses Webling.

If you don't read the ADVERTISER, you don't get half the news. Subscribe.

The tops of the exterior walls of the City Hall were covered with cement, yesterday.

One year, only twenty-five cents.

Don't fail to attend the Misses Webling entertainment in Ganiard's Opera House to-morrow (Thursday) night.

G. W. Crowson is sole dealer in "Peerless" fruit paper in Ashland.

Perhaps you don't know it, but now is the time to subscribe.

City water was piped into the High School building last Saturday.

Go to Myer and Gregory for all kinds of furnishing goods at bed rock prices.

A number of friends and classmates of Victor Mayer gave him a neat surprise party at his home last Saturday night. A most enjoyable time was had, and we will state, to the credit of those present, that when the party broke up, the "wee sma' hours" had not yet arrived, but—they were very close at hand.

A highly pleasing time is assured to those who attend the Misses Webling Concert to-morrow night.

If you want your Printing done in first class style, leave your orders at this office. Satisfaction guaranteed.

During hard times, Ashland people should economize in all possible ways. Why pay two dollars per year for your local news when you can get the cream of the same news a whole day earlier for only twenty-five cents per year?

Practise economy and subscribe for the ADVERTISER, the only journal in the that dares to "speak its mind." Every Wednesday for a year for twenty-five cents.