

THE ASHLAND ADVERTISER.

Published Every Wednesday.

Monarch of the Amateurs.

W. Y. CROWSON, } EDITOR, . .
 } PUBLISHER,
 } PROPRIETOR.

— TERMS. —

Subscription, One Year, $.25.
“ Six Months, 15.
Sample copies mailed freely.

Advertising rates, } Made known upon
Discounts, } application.
Terms to Agents, }

All ads., notices, etc., when not paid in advance, run until ordered out.

Entered at the post-office at Ashland, Oregon, as second-class matter.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING Agent, 21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. The ADVERTISER is kept on file in his office.

The "ADVERTISER" has the Largest Circulation of any Paper of its Class.

ASHLAND, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 18, 1895.

EDITORIAL.

The people of Ashland heartily endorse the independent stand the ADVERTISER is taking against the gambling that is going on in our midst, and show their appreciation by calling around and subscribing. Eight new subscribers were enrolled Saturday, eight Monday and five Tuesday. "How is this for high?"

Since there is such a demand for dwelling houses by people wishing to move here to school their children, would it not be a profitable plan for some person or company to erect a number of cottages near the Normal for the accommodation of such parties?

The benefit to Ashland can hardly be estimated.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Remember us for Job Printing.

The woolen mill received another car of wool yesterday.

Go to Myer and Gregory for all kinds of furnishing goods at bed rock prices.

C. D. Drain and F. S. Saxon, both of Drain, were in town Saturday.

W. W. Hevener and Fred Denny went to Medford Monday.

Dr. J. P. Easter, of Yoncolla, arrived Saturday, with his family. The Dr. intends to locate here and send his children to the Normal.

The barn of J. E. Cox burned down at about two o'clock this afternoon.

G. Y. Heaton left on a camping trip this morning.

It pays to advertise in the right journal; this paper is the one. Try it!

All who are interested in our Public Library should visit the Art Exhibition, the proceeds of which go to benefit the library.

G. W. Crowson is sole dealer in "Peerless" fruit paper in Ashland.

To all appearances, our city marshal, G. W. Smith, was thoroughly intoxicated last Saturday night. This is not the kind of a marshal we want next year.

One year, only twenty-five cents.

Fred T. Fradenburg was fined $35.00 and costs by the county court last Friday, for allowing gambling in his saloon.

A. S. Hammond and H. L. Benson were in town Sunday.

If you don't read the ADVERTISER, you don't get half the news. Subscribe.

Many compliments are being paid the new quartette.

There is an unusual demand for dwelling houses at present, it being almost impossible to get one in Ashland now. A great many people would come to send their children to school if they could get dwellings.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian Church will hold a Rally Service next Sunday evening at 6:30 P. M. All young people are cordially invited.

"The pledge; its joys and requirements" will be discussed.

The Lookout Committee.