NORMAL SCHOOL NOTES.

Ten new pupils Monday, and more on their way.

Lester High entered the Commercial Department Monday.

It is croquet we play now; after a while it will be tennis.

Anna Easter and Earl Jackson entered the Training School Monday.

Mr. Joseph McConnel came, Saturday, from Coos Co. He will take the Normal course.

Victor Mayer, one of Ashland's "Class of '95" has entered the Commercial Department.

Chester Easter also entered school Monday. He will take the second year of the Normal course.

The entertainment to be given Oct. 11 will be held in town instead of in the Normal building as at first reported.

Bernard Spencer, another of the Ashland "'95's," entered school Monday, to take the University preparatory course.

Miss Chaffey, of Sam's Valley will enter school next week. She is one of last year's graduates of Drain Normal.

Miss Dora Colvig, one of the Grant's Pass "'95" graduates, entered, Monday, to pursue the studies of the senior course.

We now have two pianos in the building, one in the chapel and the other in Music room. Miss Thomas is kept busy giving lessons.

Miss Josie Hancock entered school today. She is to make a specialty of music, but takes some studies from the Normal course. She is from Coos Co.

More visitors this week; Miss Rosetta Waters, of Talent, Miss Chaffey, of Sam's Valley, Mr. Owen and Miss Martha Cardell, of Central Point and several others.
