ASHLAND, WEDNESDAY, OCT. 16, 1895.

EDITORIAL.

A copy of the Student's News, now in its infancy, was received this week. As a school journal, it ranks with the best.

We are in receipt of a copy of the initial number of Hinsdale Doings, a new local journal published in Hinsdale, Ill., with Dan Merrill, formerly of the Columbian Era, as editor. Neat typographical appearance and interesting local news characterize the journal.

Our best wishes are with you Bro. Dan.

Young men don't swear! There is no occasion for it outside of the printing office, where it is useful when the paper is behind time. It also comes in handy in proof reading, and is indispensable when the ink works badly and the press begins to kick. It has been known to entirely remove that tired feeling of an editor when he looks over the paper after it is printed. Outside of a printing office, it is a foolish habit.—Ex.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Remember us for Job Printing.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Watson returned from Portland last Friday.

J. R. Tozer, O. Coolidge and Frank Neil started out to hunt ducks, Monday.

Mrs. Marion Baxter, the National W. C. T. U. Lecturer, cancelled her engagement in Ashland on account of illness.

For the past few days, a forest fire has been raging in the mountains west of the city.

The telegraph poles about the city were strengthened by strong stays.

G. W. Black returned from his trip to San Francisco, Monday evening. He intends to move to Roseburg to reside, in a day or two.

If you don't read the ADVERTISER, you don't get half the news. Subscribe.

J. H. McBride returned from his mine last Sunday.

Be sure to read the new ad. of Mrs. B. H. Hatch on fourth page.

The water is very low in Ashland Creek at present, the power obtained being insufficient to produce good electric lights.

It pays to advertise in the right journal; this paper is the one. Try it!

We were informed this morning that a brakeman had one of his feet smashed while boarding the out-going freight tram last night.

Miss Ollie Marksbury, one of the Normal students, spent Sunday at her home in Gold Hill.

H. V. Milligan has moved from Portland to Boise City, Idaho, as we infer from his request to address his ADVERTISER to the latter place.

Why pay two dollars a year for your local news when you can get the same news for twenty-five cents? Moral: Subscribe for the ADVERTISER.

A Temperance Convention, under the auspices of the County W. C. T. U., will be held in Phoenix next Saturday, Oct. 19.

All interested in the work of temperance are invited to attend and spend the day, bringing baskets with them for a picnic dinner. A program is arranged and a good time anticipated.
