

ANOTHER FIRE IN MEDFORD.

The Fiend Again Tries His Hand With His Usual Success.

The Presbyterian Church, of Medford, situated just across the street from the site of the school house that was destroyed by fire some time ago, was burned to the ground last night about half past eleven o'clock.

The blaze started in the West corner of the building, and, everything being so dry, the church burned so rapidly that to save it was impossible.

The nightwatchman, Gilbert, was acquitted at the trial this afternoon, owing to lack of evidence.

The boys who ran away were caught at Pokegama.
