

THE ASHLAND ADVERTISER.

Published Every Wednesday.

Monarch of the Amateurs.

W. Y. CROWSON, } EDITOR, . .
                          } PUBLISHER,
                          } PROPRIETOR.

— TERMS. —

Subscription, One Year, . . . . . $ .25.
                  " Six Months, . . . . . 15.
Sample copies mailed freely.

Advertising rates, } Made known upon
Discounts, . . . . . } application.
Terms to Agents, }

All ads., notices, etc., when not paid in advance, run until ordered out.

Entered at the post-office at Ashland, Oregon, as second-class matter.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING Agent, 21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. The ADVERTISER is kept on file in his office.

The "ADVERTISER" has the Largest Circulation of any Paper of its Class.

ASHLAND, WEDNESDAY, OCT. 23, 1895.

EDITORIAL.

As complimentary comment on the ADVERTISER's notice of a neat piece of typography in the Medford Mail a few weeks ago, the Mail says: "The ADVERTISER is an amateur publication, but that its publisher, Mr. W. Y. Crowson, is a printer of ability no person will deny when they have seen the croppings of clever originality in his ads—and job printing."

Our increasing support justifies the enlargement of the ADVERTISER, which will be done January 1, 1896 (which comes on Wednesday, our publication day.) The present size will be doubled.

Our modern press facilities will enable us to hold the forms open to the last minute for the latest news, then go to press and have the papers in the mail in a very short time.

The subscription price will then be raised to fifty cents per year.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

A. A. Davis, the Medford miller, was in town on business, yesterday.

The Ladies of the W. C. T. U. will have fresh bread, pies and cakes for sale on Saturday afternoon near the plaza.

The "Shasta Limited" passed through Ashland yesterday, making a stop of ten minutes.

Remember us for Job Printing.

Go to Klum & Crisler, Central Market, for clean, pure pork made entirely on cooked feed.

If you don't read the ADVERTISER, you don't get half the news. Subscribe.

The regular Inspection of Co. D, 2nd Infantry, O. N. G., will be held next Saturday evening at the armory in Granite Hall. Brig. Gen. Chas. F. Beebee, Inspector.

The Ashland News Stand will move into the Farlow block, shortly.

Water Commissioner, I. C. Dodge, was up the creek Friday and Saturday with a crew of men clearing out the drift wood.

Why pay two dollars a year for your local news when you can get the same news for twenty-five cents? Moral: Subscribe for the ADVERTISER.

BORN.—In Ashland, October 19, 1895, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Homes, a daughter.

We are pleased to note that William Loomis has recovered from his recent illness.

Ashland needs a Young Men's Local Temperance Union. Our young gentlemen should move in the matter.

It pays to advertise in the right journal; this paper is the one. Try it!

The Electric Light Co. has tapped the water main of the upper system, the power obtained from their old pipe being insufficient for their purposes.

G. H. Richardson and J. Lane were in Ashland yesterday, from Butte Creek, Cal., with a load of oats, which they exchanged for Butte Creek, Ore., flour.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hill celebrated their Golden Wedding Monday evening. There were forty-five of "the boys" present, the average of whose ages was fifty-five years. A "jolly good time" was had.