

THE ASHLAND ADVERTISER.

Published Every Wednesday.

Monarch of the Amateurs.

W. Y. CROWSON, } EDITOR, . . .
                          } PUBLISHER,
                          } PROPRIETOR.

— TERMS. —

Subscription, One Year, . . . . . $ .25.
                          Six Months, . . . . . 15.
Sample copies mailed freely.

Advertising rates, } Made known upon
Discounts, . . . . . } application.
Terms to Agents, }

All ads., notices, etc., when not paid in advance, run until ordered out.

Entered at the post-office at Ashland, Oregon, as second-class matter.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADvertising Agent, 21 Merchant's
Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. The ADVERTISER is kept on file in his office.

The "ADVERTISER" has the Largest Circulation of any Paper of its Class.

ASHLAND, WEDNESDAY, OCT. 30, 1895.

EDITORIAL.

Our new 10x15 Chandler & Price Gordon Jobber was put in last Friday. As we stated in last issue, the press is a brand new one, just from the factory in Cleveland, Ohio, and is the BEST and latest improved job press ever brought to Ashland.

The press may be seen in operation any day of the week, from Monday morning to Saturday night, and all are cordially invited to call around to see it,—the best job printing machine in the city.

The way our marshal quarrels with some of our citizens is a disgrace to Ashland. Such an officer should be ousted as soon as possible; he is unfit to hold the authority and confidence of a respectable, law-abiding community.

It was only yesterday that he was disturbing the peace in a quarrel with one of our "retired dentists." Smith, while wearing the star of his office, pushed the dentist off the walk and threatened to "slap" him, so we understand, and one of our business men was obliged to inform them that if they did not stop, he would have "the pair of them arrested."

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Remember us for Job Printing.

W. H. Brunk returned from Salem yesterday.

Call for "Ashland Butte" lard at Wm. Hevener's Grocery.

Rev. N. S. Taylor and wife, of Drain, arrived on to-day's train.

If you don't read the ADVERTISER, you don't get half the news. Subscribe.

A new board crossing has been laid at the junction of Oak and Main streets.

It pays to advertise in the right journal; this paper is the one. Try it!

The stock of Myer & Gregory was placed in the hands of an assignee to-day.

MARRIED.—In Ashland, this afternoon at one o'clock, Mr. Thos. Kay and Miss Johnson.

Go to Klum & Crisler, Central Market, for clean, pure pork made entirely on cooked feed.

MARRIED.—In Jacksonville, Monday, October 28, 1895, Mr. William Million and Miss Hellen Hangen.

The excursion train left for the Portland Exposition this morning. There were about sixty Ashland excursionists aboard.

The Inspectors of the O. N. G. returned from Ft. Klamath this afternoon, where they had been inspecting the Cavalry troop.

The Alliance Foot Ball Team, of Oakland, Cal., was on last evening's train. The team intends to make a tour of the Northwest.

The W. C. T. U. will have another sale of fresh bread, pies and cakes Saturday afternoon at corner of Oak and Main streets.

Remember the Temperance Convention at Central Point, Saturday, Nov. 2. A good program is arranged and a picnic dinner to be enjoyed.

Why pay two dollars a year for your local news when you can get the same news for twenty-five cents? Moral: Subscribe for the ADVERTISER.

Miss Jessie Clint has moved her fashionable Millinery Parlor into more suitable quarters opposite City Hall, where she is prepared with a nice stock to meet the wants of the ladies of Ashland.