NORMAL SCHOOL NOTES.

Mrs. Sacket, of Medford, was visiting with her daughter last week.

Amos Nininegar entered school Monday to take the Business course.

Prof. Storms and his geology classes ascended Grizzly Peak last Saturday.

The enrollment now numbers one hundred, not reckoning the model department.

Miss Helen Churchman, from Medford, entered school Monday morning to take special studies.

Miss Pearl Grieves entered school Monday to take music and a special course. She is from Siskiyou.

Mr. Wm. Chase and wife, two of Drain's old students, were visiting the Normal last Saturday.

The pipe is now laid from the upper springs, and water will soon be conducted to different stories of the main building.

Prof. Van Scoy gave the opening lecture last Sunday in the Normal School building. Subject, "Life." It was quite interesting and well attended by our city friends and also those from the surrounding country. We are glad to see the people manifesting so much interest in our school work, and kindly ask you to "come again."
