ASHLAND, . . . WEDNESDAY, NOV. 13, 1895.

EDITORIAL.

The annual city election for Ashland will be held December 17, this year. It is about time for our citizens to be thinking about whom they want for city officers. Exercise your good judgement, and do not elect another such marshal as our present one.

We were informed last week that some of the job printing turned out by the ADVERTISER was thought to be work done in San Francisco, it being so neatly and artistically executed and so much superior to that turned out by the other offices in Ashland.

Permit us again to call your attention to the fact that we turn out the best work in the city, having the best facilities and knowing how to use them, and as for our job press, we have, without exception, the best one in Southern Oregon. Beside our press, those of our competitors would look, old-fashioned, small and insignificant.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Loomis sells "Ashland Butte" lard.

Remember us for Job Printing.

Go to Klum & Crisler, Central Market, for clean, pure pork made entirely on cooked feed.

Mr. Bliton, one of the publishers of the Medford Mail, was in Ashland last Friday, and made the ADVERTISER a pleasant call.
