

THE ASHLAND ADVERTISER.

Published Every Wednesday.

Monarch of the Amateurs.

W. Y. CROWSON, } EDITOR, . .
 } PUBLISHER,
 } PROPRIETOR.

— TERMS. —

Subscription, One Year, $25.
" Six Months, 15.
Sample copies mailed freely.

Advertising rates, } Made known upon
Discounts, } application.
Terms to Agents, }

☞ All ads., notices, etc., when not paid in advance, run until ordered out.

Entered at the post-office at Ashland, Oregon, as second-class matter.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING Agent, 21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. The ADVERTISER is kept on file in his office.

The "ADVERTISER" has the Largest Circulation of any Paper of its Class.

ASHLAND, WEDNESDAY, DEC. 4, 1895.

EDITORIAL.

Just three more issues of the present size, then the enlarged edition.

We are informed that a certain "sport" threatened to quit gambling in a particular den in Ashland unless the ventilation was more properly regulated, his conscience requiring a little more honest air than the room afforded.

Among many of our best citizens, there has been an idea prevailing that our officers are determined at the polls and that their voices would play an unimportant part in the conventions, and so they remain away. This, however, is a false supposition. In reality, the convention is the place where our officers are determined. Then why should not all turn out to secure the nomination of only competent men? Let there be no chance of the election of incompetent persons by having no undesirable candidates. Party feeling should be given a back seat in local elections. THE BEST MEN FOR THE PLACES!

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Loomis sells "Ashland Butte" lard.

J. G. Birdsey, ex-sheriff of Jackson County, died yesterday morning.

Edward Spencer left for Gold Hill, today, where he will try his hand at mining.

If you don't read the ADVERTISER, you don't get half the news. Subscribe.

The Anniversary Meeting of the Ashland High School Literary Society will be held to-night in the High School building.

Street Commissioner Jones has been doing some good work the past few weeks in putting in new walks and crossings where they were needed.

☞ Remember us for Job Printing.

The B. C. R. F. Mill Co.'s New Feed Store is daily receiving large wagon loads of flour and feed.

It pays to advertise in the right journal; this paper is the one. Try it!

To-night is your last opportunity to attend the Ladies' Fair and Supper in the Congregational Church. Everybody come and have a good time.

Many of our enterprising merchants are attractively displaying new stocks of holiday goods.

Pete Devlin, of Jacksonville, was in Ashland last Thursday and Friday.

Go to Klum & Crisler, Central Market, for clean, pure pork made entirely on cooked feed.

A. C. Frick, who held up the Klamath-Linkville stage with a "bark gun," was sentenced to five year's imprisonment last Saturday.

The comedy, "London Assurance," to be given by the Normal students, Dec. 20, promises to be a good one—good for the blues.

Why pay two dollars a year for your local news when you can get the same news for twenty-five cents? Moral: Subscribe for the ADVERTISER.

The Ladies' Fair in the Congregational Church is visibly marked with rare artistic taste, surpassing all previous fairs of like nature held in Ashland. A program of unusual excellence was rendered last evening. An equally pleasant time to-night. Fine supper in connection.