

THE ASHLAND ADVERTISER.

Published Every Wednesday.

Monarch of the Amateurs.

W. Y. CROWSON, } EDITOR, . .
                          } PUBLISHER,
                          } PROPRIETOR.

— TERMS. —

Subscription, One Year, . . . . . $25.
                  " Six Months, . . . . . 15.
Sample copies mailed freely.

Advertising rates, } Made known upon
Discounts, . . . . . } application.
Terms to Agents, }

All ads., notices, etc., when not paid in advance, run until ordered out.

Entered at the post-office at Ashland, Oregon, as second-class matter.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING Agent, 21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. The ADVERTISER is kept on file in his office.

The "ADVERTISER" has the Largest Circulation of any Paper of its Class.

ASHLAND, . . . . WEDNESDAY, DEC. 11, 1895.

EDITORIAL

Next Tuesday is election. The importance of putting the right men in the right places is unquestionable. Vote for MEN only. No more such marshals as our present. Down the gambling ring!

T. K. Roberts, publisher of the Gold Hill Miner, has associated with himself a partner, E. E. Phipps. THE ADVERTISER wishes the new management abundant success.

If you see anything in a paper that you don't like, don't be foolish enough to get up on your hind legs and go bel-lowing about like a mad bull and imagine it is for you. If the shoe doesn't fit, do not put it on, and if it does, keep still; the people will generally think more of you for it. Also remember that other people have opinions and have just as good a right to them as you have. At times, a paper may be at fault, but remember you have your failings as well. Have charity for the feelings of others, whether religious, political or otherwise; they may be right and you wrong.—Ex.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Loomis sells "Ashland Butte" lard.

It pays to advertise in the right journal; this paper is the one. Try it!

Remember us for Job Printing.

A full assortment of nuts at prices to suit the times at the Candy Palace.

If you don't read the ADVERTISER, you don't get half the news. Subscribe.

Will and Frank Grubb came over from Applegate, where they have been mining, Sunday, returning Tuesday.

Wig Ashpole and Arthur Nichols, of Eagle Point, came in from Klamath Monday.

Have you seen the "Climbing Monkey" at Bert's Candy Palace? Come in and see him climb.

Mrs. A. Colver returned home last Thursday from her visit in Dunsuir.

The members of the Ashland Athletic Club have been practising foot ball under a professional coacher.

Tons of plain mixed candy at 10 cents per pound at Sayles' Candy Store.

HICKORY NUTS. Old Shellbark. 2 pounds for a quarter at Sayles' Candy Store.

Don't sell your vote for a drink, but preserve your good moral standing in the community by voting for C. P. Jones for city marshal.

The Normal students will produce the comedy "London Assurance" in Medford Monday evening, December 23.

Before buying your Christmas candy, don't fail to see the assortment in the Candy Palace, and get prices.

For manzaneta work, call at Sherwin's Pharmacy.

Don't forget "London Assurance" in Ganiard's Opera House December 20.

We give a nice candy pail with every pound of candy purchased. Sayles, the Candy Man.

Ralph Billings went to San Francisco yesterday.

The holidays are rapidly approaching. If you want any printing done, call around at the ADVERTISER office. We guarantee you the best work in the city at the lowest price. We have the BEST and most modern job press and facilities in Ashland and mean just what we say.