

THE ASHLAND ADVERTISER.

Published Every Wednesday.

Monarch of the Amateurs.

W. Y. CROWSON, } EDITOR, . .
                          } PUBLISHER,
                          } PROPRIETOR.

— TERMS. —

Subscription, One Year, . . . . . $ .25.

“          Six Months, . . . . . 15.

Sample copies mailed freely.

Advertising rates, } Made known upon
Discounts, . . . . . } application.
Terms to Agents, }

All ads., notices, etc., when not paid in advance, run until ordered out.

Entered at the post-office at Ashland, Oregon, as second-class matter.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING Agent, 21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. The ADVERTISER is kept on file in his office.

The "ADVERTISER" has the Largest Circulation of any Paper of its Class.

ASHLAND, . . . . WEDNESDAY, DEC. 18, 1895.

EDITORIAL.

Be sure to get a supplement with today's ADVERTISER. First accurate report of the returns of yesterday's election.

Smith says the snow is deepest that he ever saw it. Well, yes, since he mentioned it, he does appear to be pretty thoroughly "snowed under."

It is pleasing to note with what certainty the people of Ashland are waking up to their interests. The MEN in Ashland outnumber the gambling and the saloon elements more than two to one.

Owing to our enlargement the first of the year, there will be no Christmas edition of the ADVERTISER, this being the last issue of this size of the "Monarch of the Amateurs." The subscription price will be raised to fifty cents per year, and for that sum we will give you the earliest, most complete and most reliable account of the week's local happenings.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Loomis sells "Ashland Butte" lard.

It pays to advertise in the right journal; this paper is the one. Try it!

Remember us for Job Printing.

A full assortment of nuts at prices to suit the times at the Candy Palace.

If you don't read the ADVERTISER, you don't get half the news. Subscribe.

The B Class of the High School will give an entertainment soon after the holidays.

There will be a two week's holiday vacation, beginning with next week, for the Ashland Public Schools.

Have you seen the "Climbing Monkey" at Bert's Candy Palace? Come in and see him climb.

G. F. Billings and son, Ralph, returned from San Francisco on Monday's flyer.

Tons of plain mixed candy at 10 cents per pound at Sayles' Candy Store.

Ray Sachwell, for a long time operator of the Postal Telegraph office at this place, has been transferred to Salem. L. D. Minkler is filling his former position here.

HICKORY NUTS. Old Shellbark. 2 pounds for a quarter at Sayles' Candy Store.

The Normal School Notes were unavoidably crowded out of this issue. Plenty of space after the first of the year.

Before buying your Christmas candy, don't fail to see the assortment in the Candy Palace, and get prices.

Go to Klum & Crisler, Central Market, for clean, pure pork made entirely on cooked feed.

For manzaneta work, call at Sherwin's Pharmacy.

Don't forget "London Assurance" in Ganiard's Opera House December 20.

We give a nice candy pail with every pound of candy purchased. Sayles, the Candy Man.

The holidays are rapidly approaching. If you want any printing done, call around at the ADVERTISER office. We guarantee you the best work in the city at the lowest price. We have the BEST and most modern job press and facilities in Ashland and mean just what we say.