PERSONAL.

—Max Pracht left Sunday for Chicago to be gone until fall.

—Chas. Bolton went to Merlin last Monday to work on the freight.

—F. D. Robbins, of the firm of Frey & Robbins, went down to Phoenix last Saturday.

—O. B. Allen, of the Yreka Union, came over Sunday to visit his family here, returning yesterday.

—G. W. Smith returned Friday from his trip to Roseburg, Drain, Elkton and other points down the valley.

—L. F. Willitts and J. R. Norris went to Albany Monday to attend the Republican district convention yesterday.

—E. V. Mills went to San Francisco Saturday to submit to the amputation of his injured leg. The operation was performed Sunday morning at eleven o'clock, and the patient is getting along nicely.

H. M. Hicks came over Saturday from the "Hicks" mine on the Cottonwood. He brought over $100 in gold nuggets ranging in value from $5 to $10 each. The old channel has been found and it is expected that much more of the glittering stuff will reward the efforts of the miners. Four men are now at work. Mrs. Hicks accompanied her husband on his return to the mine yesterday.

Central Point Pointers.

Edward R. Owens is no better and no hopes of his recovery.

A. S. Jacobs made a business trip to Jacksonville Monday.

George Brown, a merchant of Eagle Point, was in town last week.

Mrs. Wm. Holmes, who has been quite ill, is now able to be out again.

Wm. Gee, who came here from Sam's Valley to be treated for kidney trouble, is thought to be no better.

Our town seems to be quite deserted of young people, especially young ladies, six of them leaving Sunday to take up their charges on the day following in their respective places of teaching.

Miss Cora Brown, of Eagle Point, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Portland for some time and is now at Mount Tabor, will soon arrive home, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Devins, of that place.

Mrs. Nora Norman, of Portland, wife of Al. Norman, a brakeman who used to work on this division but now running between Roseburg and Portland, is visiting her sisters Misses Clara and Cassia Perry, of this place; also their brother.
