

The Ashland Advertiser.

Published Every Wednesday.

Monarch of the Amateurs.

W. Y. CROWSON, } EDITOR, . .
PUBLISHER,
PROPRIETOR.

— TERMS. —

Subscription, One Year,$50.
" Six Months,25.
Sample copies mailed freely.

Advertising rates, } Made known upon
Discounts, } application.
Terms to Agents, }

All ads., notices, etc., when not paid in advance, run until ordered out.

Entered at the post-office at Ashland, Oregon, as second-class matter.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING Agent, 21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. The ADVERTISER is kept on file in his office.

The "ADVERTISER" has the Largest Circulation of any Amateur Newspaper in the World.

ASHLAND, . . . WEDNESDAY, APRIL 22, 1896.

EDITORIAL.

If Barnes is elected Sheriff of Jackson county, we wonder if he will turn around and deputize Patterson for $60 a month, instead of paying him the $1,500 due him as a salary, as we understand Patterson did with Barnes. By so doing, the Sheriff has the neat little sum of $780 to drop into his pocket—"and say nothing."

What may prove one of the greatest benefits to the human race is the discovery that the application of the Roentgen X ray is a sure cure for such diseases as consumption, typhoid, diphtheria, etc. According to the announcements of the physicians experimenting along this line, the application of the ray kills outright, the germs of these diseases, and, when thus destroyed, can never revived.

Mr. H. B. Carter Dead.

Mr. H. B. Carter, president of the Bank of Ashland, and a well known and highly respected citizen of Ashland, who left last week for Texas, suffered an attack of paralysis last Saturday as the train neared Los Angeles. He was kindly attended and taken to the hospital in Los Angeles, and his relatives and friends notified by telegram. The paralytic attack extended along Mr. Carter's right side, rendering him unconscious. His identity was ascertained by an examination of his traveling possessions. At first, his condition was thought to be not dangerous. Last report is to the effect that Mr. Carter died this (Wednesday) morning at 3:40 o'clock. The remains will be brought to Ashland for interment.

The sorrowing relatives have the heart-felt sympathy of the entire community.

Central Point Pointers.

Miss Maud Downing spent Saturday at home with her parents.

Wm. Gee, who is still here being treated, is reported as improving.

Wm. Brown, son of George Brown, of Eagle Point, was in town Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Homes, of this place, left for Eagle Point last Friday for a visit with her parents and friends there.

Some of the Populists at the convention in Medford last Friday and Saturday displayed very little brains, or they had so much that, like a cabbage, the head sometimes gets too large for the stump, and it cracks, and then, of course, there is not enough solidity left to keep it from bursting and causing quite a rupturous explosion which the coming results will show in the near future.

The opinion of the editor of the Pacific Baptist, of Portland, in reference to Easter, acquiesces fully with my thought and views. He says: "Is it not unfortunate that the average girl is coming to regard Easter less as a memorial of His resurrection who arose that we might live for higher things than as the occasion for the display of new spring clothing?" And who will question the fact? It is a matter which admits of no denial that hats and flowers and the music are the principal attractions which win many to attend the Easter service. He says they are all good in their places, but they are all wicked when they obscure to the eyes of any, the Glory of Christ's resurrection. It were better to have no flowers and no music and to wear old hats forever than that the Easter tide should become empty of spiritual significance, and God forbid that we confound the day on which He arose with the millinery spring opening, or make the place where His Disciples gather to celebrate the risen Jesus a dress circle. It is time that Easter Sunday, if recognized at all, shall be recognized, not as a fashion Sunday, but as resurrection morn. Let the new hats and new dresses come before or after, but let Christ's day be kept sacred to the things which are spiritual and eternal. "M."

The Youngsters Play Foot Ball.

The third foot ball teams of the North and South schools of Ashland played a lively little match game on the foot ball grounds last Saturday afternoon. Samuel Grubb was captain of the South school team and Louis Stanley was captain of the North school team. Considering their size, the boys played a very good game, Stanley, of the North school, and Whitney, of the South school, making the best plays. The North school team scored a touch-down and a goal in the first half. The South school team made a touch-down just as the second half closed, and, through "jangling" and some misunderstanding of the rules, did not try at goal. Score, N. 6; S. 4.

City Council Proceeding.

April 18, 1896.—All members present except C. H. Gillette.

G. J. Connor, proprietor of the Oregon Hotel, was licensed to sell liquor. Mr. Connor presented a petition signed by 265 legal voters—the longest petition that has ever come before the Council.

LOCAL SQUIBS.

Fish every Thursday at Poley & Co's.

A slight depth of snow covered the ground Monday morning.

Plain washing 25 cents per dozen at the Ashland Steam Laundry.

Richard & Pringel's famous "Georgia Minstrels" will show in Ganiard's Opera House to-morrow (Thursday) night.

Remember us for JOB PRINTING.

FOR SALE.—Coal, in any quantity.
Emil Peil, Blacksmith.

Supper will be served from 6 to 8 at the Congregational church, Friday evening, May 1st, for 15 cents.

For quick, first-class service, go to the Ashland Steam Laundry. Satisfaction guaranteed. Mail orders solicited.

If you don't read the ADVERTISER, you don't get half the news. Subscribe.

The Senior class of the High School is taking final examination this week.

White labor only at the Ashland Steam Laundry.

Not cheap paper, but paper cheap. If you are thinking of buying wall paper this spring, don't buy until have seen fine samples of paper for sale by Mrs. B. H. Hatch at less than half price.

Be sure to come to the May sociable at the Cong. church. Admission, 10 cents.

Millfeed $12.50 per ton, wholesale; $14.00 per ton, retail, at Ashland Mills.

BORN.—In Ashland, Monday, April 20, 1896, to Mrs. Agnes Abbot, a son.

Hard wood for sale. Leave orders at the ADVERTISER office.

SITUATION WANTED by experienced lady cook on ranch or in mining or lumbering camp. Address H, New Western Hotel, Ashland, Oregon.

Emil Peil, doctor of sick mowers, etc.

Virgin's Granulated Patent Flour—seldom equalled; never excelled.

Six new pictures, with nice frames, have been hung upon the walls of the High School study room. They were purchased with some of the proceeds of the B Class Entertainment.

The May queen will be crowned,
The May pole will be wound,
May baskets will be found,
And May flowers will abound,

At the Congregational Church, Friday evening, May 1st.

Obituary of Mrs. Homes.

Mrs. Homes, the aged mother of F. C. Homes, of this place, was born and educated at New Haven, Conn. She married Mr. Wm. Homes, of Boston, and moved to Waverly, Ill., a city founded by her father. About six years ago, she came to Ashland with her son. She died at the home of her daughter in Oakland, Cal., April 17, 1896. Remains brought to Ashland for burial Saturday, but the weather not permitting, burial was postponed until Monday, April 20, at 2:00 o'clock. Services were held in the Congregational church.

Mrs. Homes was a very well educated and widely read woman, and was personally acquainted with Abraham Lincoln.