The Mail Contract.

E. Parr, the mail route contractor, arrived in Ashland last Friday evening. The mail that was to leave Ashland for Klamath Falls on that day had not gone. Mr. Parr at once made temporary arrangements, whereby Sutton and Sons furnish the present service as far as Shake. The first mail to that point left Ashland Saturday afternoon. The contractor entertains high hopes of having the regular mail running on schedule time shortly.

Upon the mail not being moved Friday, postmaster W. H. Brunk received telegram to engage temporary service at a price not to exceed $21 per day, until the arrival of the contractor.

Prize Contest.

The prizes offered by the B. C. R. F. Mill Co. for the nearest guesses to the number of nails contained in a keg, the guessing restricted to patrons of "Snowy Butte" flour, were awarded as follows:

1st prize, 4 sacks flour, Geo. Wiley; guess, 6945.

2d prize, 2 sacks flour, G. Y. Heaton; guess, 6794.

3d prize, 1 sack flour, Mrs. G. Y. Heaton; guess, 6749.

The actual number of nails contained in the keg was 7184. The prize winners are all residents of Ashland.
