

W. C. T. U. Gleams.

"Truth crushed to earth shall rise again."

"Mine ears have heard the tramping of a consecrated host Of awakened souls advancing, quickened by the Holy Ghost, From the shores of the Atlantic to the grand Pacific coast; The Truth is marching on."

'Though the party ships way split on the silver and the gold rocks, we rejoice that the principles of truth do not go down with the wrecks.

"We owe a debt of love to every one in the world who needs our love."

H. L. Castle, of Pittsburg, who, in behalf of the city, welcomed the Prohibition Convention, concluded with expressive appreciation of its principle as follows: "And may God Almighty bless your coming and may He through you curse and blight, wither and destroy legalized liquor traffic, the greatest foe to God and humanity ever invented in hell or patented on earth."

No one can work effectively for the salvation of men unless he first prays fervently for them.—Ram's Horn.

"When the heart is full of compassion there is not room for prejudice."
