

W. C. T. U. Gleams.

Following are the resolutions adopted at the third annual meeting of the W. C. T. U., May 12, 13 and 14, 1896:

1st.—The Lord of Hosts is our Commander; by His power we have been permitted to assemble in our third annual convention of Jackson county. We feel that because of His goodness, we are under renewed obligations, and hereby pledge ourselves with earnest zeal to be more faithful in this great soul saving service of the W. C. T. U.

2d.—We reaffirm our allegiance to the undying principles of the temperance cause, and hold in veneration the names of the pioneers who so grandly inaugurated this movement.

3d.—Our venerable Bro. Neil Dow, later Mother Thompson, as leader of the brave band of crusaders, who vanquished many a foe by their persistent supplications. And on down the line come our grand co-workers, Francis E. Willard and Lady Henry Somerset, whom God, in His wisdom, has raised up for such a time as this. Our thoughts turn also to our own beloved state, whose president is Narcissa White Kinney, of Astoria. And last, but not least, comes our own county president, Mrs. D. E. Hyde, of Ashland. Though absent in person, we feel her gentle influence in spirit and pray God's blessings attend her.
