

W. C. T. U. Gleams.

Mrs. Lucia H. Additon, state organizer and national lecturer of W.C.T.U., will speak some afternoon. She is said to be an earnest and interesting speaker. Come out and hear her, her subject will be the Human Problem according to Law, taking up the Sociological question. Watch out for the announcement and be there when she speaks. She has made this a study for nine years, and will give you something to think about.

What the people and the press say of Mrs. Lucia H. Additon's work among them:

Mrs. Additon is a forcible and convincing speaker. Her language is well chosen, brief and comprehensive. She is well informed on the questions of the day, and able to handle them in a masterful manner. Those who do not agree with her often are convinced by her clear and pleasant style of presenting facts and arguments.—Mrs. B. F. Burgen, President Berkley (Cal.) W. C. T. U.

The Labor Question, from a temperance standpoint, was ably handled by Mrs. Additon at the W. C. T. U. Convention.—Oregonian.

Those who did not hear Mrs. Additon Thursday evening missed an intellectual treat.—Berkley (Cal.) Daily Advocate.
