

W. C. T. U. Gleams.

O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me.—Isa. 43-3. Such has been the prayer of earnest souls through all the ages—and let us praise our God, who heareth prayer and has ever blessed those who sought for heaven's gifts; the earth is being flooded with the light of the "Sun of Righteousness" as never before; we know there is healing in his wings for all people and nations wounded by the dragon of sin: and where, on whom has it not left its poisoned sting?

But is the light of Heaven, the very Light of God beaming and flashing in Ashland! and so many oblivious to it? Yes, we rejoice in its clear and life-giving rays, but oh so sorry that many are still willing to be under condemnation, because they prefer darkness to light, and say by their lives: "Away with Truth. Crucify it! Crucify it!" And still a Loving Father is making new avenues for the transmission of His gifts.

From our Chautauqua platform, the flash-light of Truth has been turned on all the leading and vital questions of the day, and earnest men and women are more fully equipped for the duties of life before them.
