

W. C. T. U. Gleams.

Space forbids even brief mention of every lecture from the platform or report of the very helpful and enjoyable work of the Schools and Round Table talks and Vesper Services, but merely make mention of our guests from abroad. One of the favorites, if not the favorite, of our first platforms, Selah Brown was most cordially received. Mrs. Baxter's lecture, "The Reason for the Hard Times," most potent with truth and logic, was very ably and forcibly presented, and was by those so fortunate as to hear it, pronounced second to none delivered during the Assembly. Dr. Carlos Martyn, with the courage of his convictions—on the right side of every moral and social question—was rightly appreciated, and was pleasing as well as forcible. Next comes Dr. Dille, and we can say nothing more expressive of our appreciation than to repeat what was heard so many times after the delivery of his sermon, "The Christ of Today:" "Was it not grand, good?" and we reply "yes" in the superlative degree.

Mention of our work and workers next week.

Good has to die every minute that sin is allowed to live.—Ram's Horn.
