

W. C. T. U. Gleams.

In the morning sow thy seed, and in evening withhold not thy hand.—Eecl. 11-6.

Mr. D. L. Moody is quoted as authority for the statement: "More Bibles have been printed and distributed during the past eight years than during the more than eighteen hundred years preceding."

In the United Kingdom, Bands of Hope number 22,302, a total membership of 2,813,800, so says the Union Signal. And from the same source, we learn that another hopeful band, the Rhinelanders, Wis., W. C. T. U. has distributed over sixty thousand pages of Christian temperance literature.

But let none be at ease in the vineyard of the Lord, satisfied that so much effort is being put forth to bring in the reign of righteousness. Be assured no one else is doing your work, that cannot be done but by you: then sit not with folded arms, when the enemy is sowing tares in the field about you.

Thos. Edison, the inventor, says he never uses alcoholic stimulants, because he has better use for his brains.—Oregon White Ribbon.
