

W. C. T. U. Gleams.

The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.—Psa. 19, 8.

Pledged forever,
To Christ I come;
Free from tobacco,
Profanity and rum.

This pledge was repeated by Dr. J. R. Boynton, the chief of the staff of homeopathy physicians of our National Temperance Hospital, of Chicago, when, through mistaken hospitality, he was offered wine and cigars in a lovely Southern home, and was complimented for his choice by his generous host.

Dr. Boynton says moreover, that the best and most intelligent people of the present time would no more have decanters of wine in their homes than mad dogs. Truly the light is breaking.

Most encouraging reports of our work come from the outposts all along the line, so says our National Cor. Secretary.

From statistics with regard to the victims of the recent heated term in St. Louis, we learn that they were mostly adults of the working classes; among the fatalities were few women, and fully two-thirds of the men who succumbed were addicted to the use of alcoholic drinks. Another temperance lesson for the receptive.
