

W. C. T. U. Gleams.

Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.—Psalms 34:13.

"Some one has well said, 'Truth dwells underground;' it requires mining to get at it."—The Outlook.

"It is stated that the Anti-Saloon League, of Ohio, has, in its two years of existence, closed up four hundred and thirty-nine saloons."—Union Signal.

Humanity is a very slow pupil. It is extraordinarily reluctant to learn from the experiences of the past. It repeats over and over again, with dismal monotony, experiments the sole value of which is to confirm, by new disasters, lessons taught by previous disasters."—Outlook.

A. M., Macomb, Ill.—"Don't you think if fathers were what they ought to be, every child would be born with heart attuned to the 'eternal harmonies?' The mother cannot change the impure nature the father may have given the child. We mothers would be glad if preachers everywhere would preach more to the boys and impress them with the great responsibility of being good men. It seems to us that there are very few real fathers in the world at present."—Christian Herald.
