

The Ashland Advertiser.

Published Every Wednesday.

Monarch of the Amateurs.

W. Y. CROWSON, } EDITOR, . .
PUBLISHER,
PROPRIETOR.

— TERMS. —

Subscription, One Year, $.50.
" Six Months,25.
Sample copies mailed freely.

Advertising rates, } Made known upon
Discounts, } application.
Terms to Agents, }

All ads., notices, etc., when not paid in advance, run until ordered out.

Entered at the post-office at Ashland, Oregon, as second-class matter.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING Agent, 21 Merchant's Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. The ADVERTISER is kept on file in his office.

The "ADVERTISER" has the Largest Circulation of any Amateur Newspaper in the World.

ASHLAND, WEDNESDAY, OCT. 21, 1896

Vote for McKinley, and the nation votes with you,
Vote for Bryan, and you vote alone;
His free silver parties must borrow their ballots,
For they've not half enough of their own.

"W. J. Bryan advocates honest money and protection to all the people" appears on a "free wool" banner suspended across Main street in front of Odd Fellows' block, hung there, not through any honest motive, but to deceive the simple minded and obtain their votes, as they betray in their every movement, "if not by fair means, then by foul." Their assertion is an open insult to the republican party; since the popocrats, through ignorance or intentional deceit, are unable or unwilling to quote anything original, (just here it may be stated that a quotation from the true advocations of their candidate would be injurious to their object) they make no scruple to take the advocacy of their opponents, which on the free silver banner, totters alone, unsupported by any statement of their leader: hence, every word of it bears on its face the base image of theft and falsehood.

Bryan does not pretend to advocate anything honest or protective in its nature. He says "the present money is too good," and considers "highway robbery more honorable than protection;" thus this banner becomes traitor to its cause.

Y. P. S. C. E. Social in the Congregational church Friday evening, November 6. Admission, 10 cents. Further announcements later. Something interesting.

First Class Accommodations.

+++
|| Second Class
|| Prices.
++

NO CHINESE EMPLOYED.

$1.00 a Day

Ashland House

Ranse Rouse, Prop'r.

Boarding by the Day, Week, or Month.

MEALS 25 CENTS.

FRESH BREAD.

CENTRALLY LOCATED.

FREE BUS TO AND FROM ALL TRAINS.

LOCAL SQUIBS.

The Ashland creamery made a shipment of butter to Glendale yesterday.

If you don't read the ADVERTISER, you don't get half the news. Subscribe.

Look out for the Y. P. S. C. E. social in the Congregational church November 6th.

Try Hevener's fresh Eastern Sorghum 65 cents a gallon.

Last Monday, a blind musician was doing the people and "taking in the sights" of our city.

Everything to suit the traveler, at the Ashland House. First class accommodations.

Prof. W. T. VanScoy, of the Ashland Normal, delivered the evening sermon in the M. E. church last Sunday. His discourse was good.

Hevener sells good roasted coffee at 25 cents a lb; better for 35 cents; and the very best for 40 cents.

Hard wood for sale. Leave orders at the ADVERTISER office.

Try the Ashland House for a good square meal.

Fresh creamery butter at Wm. Hevener's Grocery.

Wanted to Rent.---A piano. Inquire at the Ashland Hotel.

Fresh Cape Cod cranberries, 15 cents a quart at Wm. Hevener's Grocery.

In the absence of Rev. E. P. Childs, Mr. Howell delivered the sermon in the Congregational church last Sunday morning.

A number of cases of theft have been reported from places south-east of Ashland. The latest is a theft of about ten bushels of potatoes from the Sheffield place last Sunday night. Previous thefts have been of hogs, bacon, vegetables, etc.

Mrs. Matthes and daughter, Jessie, now occupy the ground floor of the S. V. Cowles residence on South Main Street, and Mrs. Cowles and daughter, Mrs. Flo Otto, occupy the second floor. Mrs. Matthes and daughter are recently from Phenix.

Never was a more grievous wrong done the farmers of our country than that so unjustly inflicted during the past three years upon the wool growers. Although among our most useful citizens, their interests have been practically destroyed.—McKinley's letter of acceptance.

Normal School Notes.

Several new scholars this week.

The boy who lost so much hair this week will probably profit by the experience and let the big girls alone.

The sermon by Pres. VanScoy last Sunday evening was highly appreciated by the students and others who attended.

A big accident seems to have happened last week. We haven't learned the particulars, but it is rumored that a house fell on one of the students, injuring him quite seriously.

Cat serenades seem to be the thing now, but we hope no more students will be served as the poor fellow was who was mistaken for a real cat and had boiling water thrown over him.

Do a couple of our students recognize the following conversation?

— "There is one thing I like about you, —."

— "What's that?"

— "My arm."

Pupil.—What does this mean: "The angry girl hurled her words at him vindictively?"

Prof.—I suppose the event occurred one of the cold mornings last week, and the words froze on the girls lips so that she broke them off and threw them at him."

The football boys can be seen almost any evening in the full glory of their "uniforms." So sad that beauty must fade.
R. E. PORTER.

C. B. Watson's Addresses.

C. B. Watson will deliver addresses at the following points in the valley this week:

Jacksonville, Wednesday evening.

Gold Hill, Thursday "

Woodville, Friday "

Medford, Saturday "

His address at Eagle Point last Friday evening was largely attended, and is receiving complimentary comment.

Last Thursday a couple of miners, having received their month's wages, were enjoying themselves in Medford, and chanced to fall in with some hoboos, who robbed them of their money, about $50. The hoboos were rounded up in Ashland Friday and $23 of the amount recovered.

Barbecue at Medford next Saturday. Dinner, political speaking, illuminated parade in the evening. Big time, and a hurrah for Major McKinley.