W. C. T. U. Gleams.

Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help.—Psalms 146:5.

"Upon the faithful in the common things
Enjoined of Duty, rarest blessings wait." —Saxe.

It is doubtful if we can truly own anything for which we are not grateful.

"In the long run, a man will accomplish more and better work, by working only six days in the week than by working seven. Uninterrupted labor tends to degrade man into a mere eating and working and sleeping animal."

"The Omaha school board supplements its last year's endevors to influence the boys against the cigarette habit; asking each boy to take a pledge not to use tobacco in any form while attending school."—The Oregon White Ribbon.

The Supreme Court said in the case of Crowley against Christiansen, 137 United States reports, page 86, "There is no inherent right in a citizen to sell intoxicating liquors at retail. It is not the priviledge of a citizen of a state, or of a citizen of the United States."—Union Signal.

"I will put a hook in thy nose and I will bring thee back by the way which thou camest." And God has a hook in every bad man's nose, whether he be Ahab, or Herod, or Nebuchadnezzar. He may think himself very independent, but some time in his life, or in the hour of his death, he will find that the Lord Almighty has a hook in his nose.—T. DeWitt Talmage, in Christian Herald.
