The Ashland city election will be held December 15, two weeks from next Tuesday. There are four prospective candidates for city marshal; C. P. Jones, J. W. O. Gregory, J. P. Sayle and Geo. Engle.

Winter has put in its appearance in this section of the country. A light snow fell last Monday night, completely covering the ground. Tuesday night more snow fell.

Don't forget the Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette in the opera house tomorrow (Thursday) evening. The entertainment will be given under the auspices of the local K. P. lodge. The troupe comes highly recommended, and a good concert is assured.

The "Old Folks' Concert" in Ganiard's opera house last Saturday evening was an enjoyable affair, although not largely attended. The old people were earnest in their endeavors to bring back the "bright days from out the dreamy past" and were successful to a notable degree, pleasing the audience greatly. The program was unavoidably shorter than advertised. The proceeds are for the M. E. church benefit.
