

W. C. T. U. Gleams.

He that walketh uprightly, walketh surely.—Proverbs 10:9.

Our battle cry is "For God and Home and Every Land."

Independence and McMinnville have closed everything on Sunday.

The year 1897 contains the lucky number 7. May much be accomplished for our cause this year.

South Dakota is still a prohibition state. After a heroic effort, the prohibitory article remains in the constitution.

"You'll find it out we've come to stay,
Until the fight is o'er,
We'll Ne'er give up, until saloons
Are driven from our shore."

The moral citizen says: "I am innocent, because if the church members and Christian ministers are silent on this subject, I do not see why I should be expected to take active part in this agitation."

The passage through the House of the bill for banishing intoxicating liquors from the national capitol building is an impressive sign of the times. For many years our temperance women have petitioned to this end, but it took the public drunkenness of a member of Congress to starle the House of Representatives to action.—Union Signal.
