

W. C. T. U. Gleams.

I was the song of the drunkards.— Psalms 69:12.

"The by-word of the passing throng.
The ruler's scoff, the drunkard's song."

"God has indued the very atoms of human dust with inability to lie still with evil."

Mrs. Clara C. Hoffman, National Recording Secretary of the W. C. T. U., will speak in Ashland February 24.

David and Christ were both, each in his own time, the song of the drunkards.
Holiness of doctrine and life always did excite wicked merriment.—Talmage.

The most expensive of all music is the Song of the Drunkards. It is the highest tariff of nations—not a protective tariff, but a tariff of doom, a tariff of woe, a tariff of death.—Talmage.

The committee which has been making an effort to close the saloons on Sunday in accordance with the State law has been taken to task for not endeavoring to wipe out the worst places first. If there are worse places in Ashland than the saloon, and any person knows of it, it would seem to be that person's duty to do his or her part in "wiping out" such places, not leaving all there is to be done in this direction to the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.
