

W. C. T. U. GLEANINGS.

Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits.—Psalms 68:19.

"God blesses the giving hand, and maketh it a getting hand."

The cigarette ordinance passed by the city council Wednesday evening is justly a severe one. It should be read by tobacco dealers as well as cigarette smokers, or either may get into trouble. It is very sweeping in its provisions.—Ogle County (Ill.) Press.

Mrs. Clara C. Hoffman will speak in the Methodist church, instead of the Chautauqua building as announced last week. Remember the date, Wednesday evening, Feb. 24.

Mrs. N. W. Kinney, our state president, says of Mrs. Hoffman, "I know her well, and she will do us much good."

There are real causes for popular discontent, and until these causes are removed it will be impossible, and it would be immoral, to expect stable political conditions. If the republican party is wise, it will not use its victory as an occasion for partisan government. If there is any statesmanship among its leaders, they will take this opportunity to make a searching examination into the causes of popular discontent, and they will frame legislation to remove them.—Outlook.
